EXPECT NEW QUARREL BETWEEN WILSON AND SENATE OVER COLBY

Widening of Breech Awaited When New Secretary of State Comes up For Confirmation of Senate In Near Future.

MAY PRECIPITATE FRESH ATTACK, BELIEF

New Minister to China Charles R. Crane May Have Trouble in Getting Consent of Senate to Foreign Post.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The quarrel between President Wilson and an antagonistic congress is expected to break out in a new place as soon as the name of Bainbridge Colby, the newly appointed secretary of state, comes up before the senate for confirmation.

It was freely predicted at the capitol today that the senate not only may take its own time to confirm the appointment but the president's political enemies will seize the opportunity to attack him from a new angle.

The name of Charles R. Crane, recently announced as the new minister to China is likewise before the senate, and in congressional circles it is said that his confirmation will not go through any more quickly than that of the new minister of foreign affairs.

Senator Knox, Republican, of Pennsylvania, was secretary of state under Taft at the time of Crane's appointment as U. S. Representative in the Orient and was instrumental in having the new minister recalled before he had reached his post.

Now in the senate he will be called upon, along with other Republicans to pass upon Crane, appointed again, this time by a Democratic president, and designated for a billet abroad.

Comment among Democrats is favorable that both Colby and Crane will ultimately be confirmed, is nowhere seriously disputed. Nevertheless, considerable bitterness is expressed in the camp of the president's political enemies and it is believed here that before confirmation is finally voted there will be some lively popping off of steam.

ONE OF THESE LADIES MAY BE NEXT MISTRESS OF WHITE HOUSE.

Who will be the next mistress of the White House? This question, no doubt, is puzzling many throughout the country today. In this group of charming ladies may be the next "First Lady of the Land." Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the former Food Administrator; Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of Major-General Leonard Wood; Mrs. Hiram Johnson, wife of the Senator from California; Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, wife of the Governor of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Frank O. Lowden, wife of the Governor of Illinois.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS THREATEN TO BOLT; HITCHCOCK GIVES IN

"Last Ditch" Conference of Democratic Senators Will Be Called in Case of Eventualities, Administration Leader Promises.

TREATY NOW BEFORE CONGRESS FOR ACTION

Doubt Expressed Whether Defection Among Democrats Is Sufficiently Widespread to Insure Enough Votes For Ratification.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Ratification or rejection of the treaty of peace with Germany was again put squarely up to the senate today when Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, called up the document for reconsideration.

"Until final action was compelled on the Lodge reservations, individually, and the resolution of ratification embodying them enbloc, the treaty would be kept before the senate continuously," Senator Lodge said.

A canvass of the Democratic side disclosed today that many Democratic senators heretofore counted as staunch administration adherents were ready to support the Lodge reservations rather than stand any longer in the way of ratification.

Washington, Feb. 26. — A "last ditch" conference of Democratic senators to discuss the peace treaty situation will be called by Senator Hitchcock, the administrator leader, but not until the Democratic side again is face to face with the alternative of accepting or rejecting a resolution of ratifiation embodying the Lodge reservations.

By agreeing to this plan of final action Hitchcock wasable today to patch up a truce with the growing number of Democratic senators who are oblting his leadership and threatening to support the Lodge reservation program as the only means left to get the treaty ratified at all.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, was to call the treaty up again in the senate today for the purpose of keeping it there until it is either ratified or rejected during the next week or two.

He was adamant in his purpose to assent to no modification of the long disputed reservations involving Article X, and the Monroe doctrine, although he was not unwilling to reach an agreement with Hitchcock that they should be acted upon after the rest of the Lodge reservations are gotten out of the way.

Want Trial Action.

It is Lodge's intention to compel final action on each of the remaining thirteen reservations, one by one, with whatever changes or amendments are proposed to them just as he forced a "showdown" on the first of them, that involving the withdrawal of the United States from the league of nations, on Saturday last. It was then the Democratic side began to show a marked disposition to "break" away from Hitchcock's leadership and towards Lodge's program.

Considerable doubt still existed today on the Republican as well as the Democratic side as to whether the defection of the Democratic senators was sufficiently widespread to provide enough votes to insure ratification. Hitchcock professed confidence in his ability to hold enough administration senators together to the last to prevent acceptance of the unmodified article X and Monroe doctrine reservations by the Democratic side.

"Do you think the treaty will be ratified with the Lodge reservations on a basis for ratificatin?" Senator King of Utah was asked.

"Will Be Ratified."

"The treaty will be ratified," King replied.

"Then you think enough Democratic senators will accept the Lodge reservations eventually to bring about ratification finally?"

"The treaty will be ratified," was King's smiling rejoinder.

King is one of the Democratic senators seeking ratification who has been insistent on Hitchcock's calling a conference of the Democratic side.

The plan to which Hitchcock agreed is when the "last ditch" of the treaty fight is reached—ratification or rejection—after each f the Lodge reservations, is acted n singly, and it is up to the senate to vote on them collectively as part of the resolution of ratification, a conference of Democratic senators will be held.

At the conference it will be decided if possible what course the Democratic side is to pursue with regard to the reslution of ratification containing the Lodge reservations amended or their original form as the senate may again adopt them.

CHANGES IN PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD WILL AFFECT XENIA GENERALLY IS PREDICTED

While no particulars of the radical changes in the personnel of Pennsylvania railroad executives in the system west of Pittsburgh are known here, it is believed that the changes will affect Xenia only generally.

The changes, it is said, will be principally among Division heads and other chief executives of the system, and while a great many shifts areordered, it is not thought that the new order will mean a radical change in the personnel of the railroad in this city.

One of the first announcements of the changes in the system was made when F. J. Stimson, superintendent of the Richmond Division, which operates between Cincinnati and Logansport was promoated to chief engineer of the southwestern region of the system with headquarters at St. Louis, A. C. Watson, former assistant division engineer of the Richmond Division, has been appoinetd superintendent of the Richmond division to succeed Stimson.

The change that will interest Xenfa railroad men more is the transfer of I. W. Geer, of this division, from Columbus to St. Louis, where he will be General Manager of the Southwestern region. The headquarters there will be in charge of Ben McKeen, vice-president Mr. Geer, F. J. Kron, general superintendent of transportation and Mr. Stimson.

The traffic organization of the region will be under the direction of C. B. Sudborough, traffic manager; J D. Couffer, freight traffic manager; S. C. Matthews, assistant frieght traffic manager; W. W. Richardson, passenger triffc manager; A. Bauchans, general passenger agent; J. C. Millspaugh, assistant general passenger agent.

P. C. Sprague, who has been Richmond division freight agent, will become general freight agent of the region, and B. H. Daily assistant with offices in St. Louis. H. C. Olliver of Pittsburgh, will succeed Sprague at Richmond.

The Southwestern Region, will include two grand divisions, taking in the lines through this section and including Xenia. The division will be made for operating purposes. The Indiana division will embrace the lines west of Indianapolis and include the Louisville division, and the other division will be known as the Central Ohio, embracing the lines east of Indianapolis to Columbus, Zanesville and Cincinnati.

Each of these grand divisions will be in charge of a General Superintendent, W. O. Downing will be in charge at Indianapolis and R. K Rochester at Columbus.

It is understood that the shift being made in the divisions of the Pennsylvania system, will necessitate over 300 changes in the personnel, including promotions and shifting of headquarters.

NOTORIOUS RUM REBELLION IS NOW CENTER OF ACTION

Iron River, Mich., Feb. 26.—Iron county, Michigan, became the center of national official attention today at the farcical conclusion of the first act of its now notorious "rum rebellion."

Summed up, the situation here early today stood as follows:

Major Dalrymple, who headed the "prohibition expeditionary force" here in what was announced as an armed effort to stamp out the illicit booze traffic, departed a visibly beaten man, disheartened at the failure of the Washington authorites to back him in enforcing the law.

Prohibition agent, Gaylord of Washington, started for Iron River to "make a thorough investigation" of the situation.

Still another "thorough" investigation was to be inflicted by Alexander Grosbeck, attorney general of Michigan, when he gets here.

And possibly federal warrants mav be issued for the eleven alleged 'booze insurrectionists" by U. S. Commissioner Hatch, if his little "thorough investigation" deems this necessary.

It was learned that McDonough, before he "called Dalrymple's bluff," spectacular fashion in the town's leading hotel lobby was forfeited by telegram from Attorney General Palmer expressing himself as satisfied by a telegraphed explanation sent him by McDonough.

McDonough is known as a power politically on the upper peninsula.

BADLY BURNED WHEN SKILLET UPSETS ON CHEST WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Grover Mendenhall was burned severely on the chest and inner part of the right arm by hot grease, which she accidentally upset from the kitchen range at her home on Monroe street, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Mendenhall placed the skillet containing the grease, which was almost boiling hot, on the edge of the range, and when she stooped to pick an article from the floor, she accidentally touch the vessel, and the grease upset against her. A physician found that several of the burns were deep, but in other places the skin was only blistered.

RAILROAD MAN TO REPRESENT XENIA AT MEET

Omer Tate, of this city, railroad man and ex-soldier, has been indorsed by General Leonard Wood, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, as one of his delegates to represent the seventh congressional district at the National Republican Convention to be held in Chicago in June.

Mr. Tate's declaration of candidacy was filed Wednesday afternoon with J. K. Williamson, as clerk of the Greene county board, deputy state supervisors of elections. It was signed by Attorney Charles L. Darlington, commander of Joseph P. Foody Post of the American Legion, Dr. Ben R. McClellan, Attorney W. L. Miller, Harvey Coates and Leroy T. Marshall.

Candidates for presidential delegates to the Chicago convention will be elected at the primaries to be held April 27 in Ohio.

The seventh district, composed of nine counties, is entitled to two delegates and two alternates to the convention. The other Wood candidates have not been announced.

Mr. Tate, Greene county's candidate, is adjutant of Foody Post, American Legion esteemed lecturing knight of the local lodge B. P. O. E., and candidate for exalted ruler. He enlisted in an engineering corps early in the war and served overseas much of the time in the danger zone. He was in the service 21 months.

Mr. Darlington, who has been looking after General Wood's interests locally, said Thursday that he has been in conference several times recently with General Wood and his campaign manager, General William Cooper Proctor, in Chicago.

"It looks as though Xenia and the county would be overwhelmingly in favor of General Wood,' said Mr. Darlington Thursday. "General Wood, continued Mr. Darlington, is also very glad to know that the women are entitled to vote at the presidential primaries, and he hopes that no attack will be made on the law giving them the privilege.'

POLICE CAPTURE 18 WAGON LOADS OF ILLICIT WHISKEY

Cleveland, O., Feb. 26.—Eighteen wagon loads of whiskey, raisin mash and materials and apparatus for the making of illicit liquor, valued at more than $26,000 were seized by police here today.

Adolph Morvai, who was found operating four stills on the second floor of a house in the southeast section of the city, tried to convince the officers that he was "only a poor junk dealer" when he was arrested.

WHERE ARE THEY?

Martin's Ferry, O.—This city's new municipal building is not popular as a sleeping place for hoboes. So far this year only nine men have obtained free lodging at night.

The present cold spell did not bring in one drifter for a free sleep. In other years, a cold spell would have meant a full house.

PRIZE WINNERS IN WAR DEPT. CONTEST ANNOUNCED

BRINGS SUIT TO CLAIM DAMAGES FOR R. R. INJURY

Hugh Buckwalter, Alpha, who was seriously injured by the collision of a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train with the truck he was driving for The Alpha Seed and Grain Company last December 22, at the Cincinnati avenue crossing in this city, brought suit in common pleas court, Thursday through Attorney Charles L. Darlington to recover $30,000 damages.

Attorney Darlington also brought suit at the same time for The Alpha Seed and Grain Company, to recover $2,650 for the loss of the truck, which was demolished and for other damages sustained by the company through being deprived of the use of a truck for a month. Walker D. Hines, as director general of railroads, is made defendant.

In his petition, Mr. Buckwalter declares that he exercised due caution in approaching the crossing, looking and listening for a train, before he drove onto the track. He says that buildings obstructed his view. He declares that the accident was due to the failure of the defendant to maintain a watchman, gates, or warning device of any kind at the crossing, which he sets forth is a dangerous grade crossing, and in a closely settled section, and also in operating the train at a speed which was in violation of a city ordinance regulating the rate of speed of trains.

He says that his left leg was broken between the knee and hip, that he was otherwise hurt and that his injuries are permanent. He is still in bed, at the Espey Hospital, and unable to put his foot to the floor, and for that reason, he declares, is unable to give the exact extent of his injuries, but that it is certain that his left leg will be shortened by at least an inch because of the injury. He says that he suffers great pain, and to alleviate his sufferings, opiates have to be administered frequently. He is 27 years of age.

RAIL LABOR TO BLACKLIST ALL BILL SUPPORTERS

Washington, Feb. 26.—Railroad labor's political blacklist will be made up of all members of congress who voted for the Cummins-Esch bill, "Labor," the official publication of the railroad unions and the Plumb plan league announced today.

Calling on the 2,600,000 railroad workers to "defeat their friends," at the polls, the paper publishes the full roll call on the bill.

"Organized labor," says the paper, "will now gird itself for the longer struggle. It is a struggle for a full and adequate representation in the management of the railroad industry as well. Its fight over the Cummins-Esch bill was a preliminary skirmish. Labor was compelled to retire. But in this struggle and in this retirement a new solidarity, a new consciousness, has been created that will carry labor into new fields, new ideals and new accomplishments."

SUE FOR PLEDGES

East Liverpool, O.—Civil suits will be brought against persons who have failed to carry out their pledges to contribute to East Liverpool's war chest.

SEN. JOHNSON NOW FORMAL CANDIDATE

Salem, Ore., Feb. 26.—U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, is today the sole formal candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the United States in this state. Senator Johnson's name was officially placed before the people of Oregon when Sanfield McDonald, of Portland, appeared at the secretary of state's office and presented the nomination petition. The petition carried no declaration of principles.

FESS AMENDMENT ON PRESIDENT'S DUTIES IS NOW UP

What Constitutes Disability of Chief Executive Decided.

REP. FESS OFFERS PLAN

Would Leave Matter To Decision of U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, Feb. 26.—What constitutes disability of the president of the United States and legislation necessary to fill the office during such disability were to be considered by the house judiciary committee at herings which opened today.

The committee has before it an amendment to the constitution proposed by Representative Fess, of Ohio, which would authorize the United States Supreme court to decide the question of the disability of a President upon request of congress and with such decision of disability the vice president or the cabinet officer in succession shall assume the duties of the president during the period of disability.

It has a number of resolutions on the same subject presented to the White House by various members, chief among them being the resolution offered by Representative Madden, of Illinois, which provides simply for a definition by congress of what shall constitute "disability" on the part of the president and automatic succession to the presidency of the vice president or a cabinet officer next in succession when the disability as defined shall arise.

A resolution by Representative Britten, of Illinois, would make it a disability within the meaning of the constitution for the president to absent himself from the territorial limits of the United States for thirty days or more or to be confined by illness for a like period.

TRAINMEN ROUT A WOULD BE BURGLAR IN CABOOSE OF TRAIN

Eugene Hudson, colored, found a warm reception waiting for him when he attempted to burglarize the caboose of Cincinnati local freight No. 483 at Waynesville at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Hudson is now locked up at Police Headquarters here.

When Conductor Ed. Burdell of Cincinnati and Brakeman Dan Jordan of this city, discovered the man attempting to break open a locker in the caboose, Jordan seized a poker while Burdell used his fists on the intruder. Hudson escaped under a rain of blows and walked the track to Xenia, being arrested by Railroad Detective Latimer at the edge of this city. He was taken to police headquarters where a charge of burglary was placed against him.

The attempted burglary occurred while the freight was stopped at Waynesville and the Conductor and Brakeman were about their duties ahead of the train. When they returned to the caboose, it is alleged they found the negro in the act of breaking open a locker. Jordan struck him with a poker and Burdell felled him with a blow from his fist, but the man escaped.

He told Detective Latimer that one of the men hit him with an "iron bar." The train was on its way to Cincinnati

Washington, Feb. 26.—The Adriatic correspondence between the president and the entente premirs will b made public tomorrow morning, it was announced after a brief conference today.

PRESIDENT REFUSES REQUEST OF RAIL WORKERS FOR WAGE TRIBUNAL

Washington, Feb. 26—President Wilson has informed representatives of railroad labor that he cannot reply to their request for immediate appointment of a tribunal of employers and employes to adjust wage demands until he has taken action o nthe Cummins-Esch bill. This was announced at the White House today.

The presidet had drafted a note to the representatives but the context of the note was a ected by the passage of the Cummins-Esch bill by the senate and he asked Director Genertl Hines to inform the labor representatives that he must defer action until the pending bill, which has provisions for labor adjustment boards.

BUSINESS RELATIONS BETWEEN SOVIETS AND ALLIES TO BE OPENED

Washington, Feb. 26.—Business relations will be opened between soviet Russio and the allied countries within a short time, acting Secretary of State Polk predicted today at the White House. He stated that he had not yet seen the reported peace offer, which London dispatches declared soviet Russia had forwarded to theis country. White House officials stated that the peace offer had not arrived here.

While there is every indication that business relations will be established with soviet Russia, the United States will not develop much trade with Russia, in the opinion of Mr. Polk, because Russia has little gold and the exchange rate will be unfavorable. The only trade that is likely to come to this country is that which is by barter.

Omer Tate, of this city, railroad man and ex-soldier, has been indorsed by General Leonard Wood, candidate for the Republican nomination for President, as one of his delegates to represent the seventh congressional district at the National Republican Convention to be held in Chicago in June.

Mr. Tate's declaration of candidacy was filed Wednesday afternoon with J. K. Williamson, as clerk of the Greene county board, deputy state supervisors of elections. It was signed by Attorney Charles L. Darlington, commander of Joseph P. Foody Post of the American Legion, Dr. Ben R. McClellan, Attorney W. L. Miller, Harvey Coates and Leroy T. Marshall.

Candidates for presidential delegates to the Chicago convention will be elected at the primaries to be held April 27 in Ohio.

The seventh district, composed of nine counties, is entitled to two delegates and two alternates to the convention. The other Wood candidates have not been announced.

Mr. Tate, Greene county's candidate, is adjutant of Foody Post, American Legion esteemed lecturing knight of the local lodge B. P. O. E., and candidate for exalted ruler. He enlisted in an engineering corps early in the war and served overseas much of the time in the danger zone. He was in the service 21 months.

Mr. Darlington, who has been looking after General Wood's interests locally, said Thursday that he has been in conference several times recently with General Wood and his campaign manager, General William Cooper Proctor, in Chicago.

"It looks as though Xenia and the county would be overwhelmingly in favor of General Wood," said Mr. Darlington Thursday. "General Wood, continued Mr. Darlington, is also very glad to know that the women are entitled to vote at the presidential primaries, and he hopes that no attack will be made on the law giving them the privilege."

POLICE CAPTURE 18 WAGON LOADS OF ILLICIT WHISKEY

Cleveland, O., Feb. 26.—Eighteen wagon loads of whiskey, raisin mash and materials and apparatus for the making of illicit liquor, valued at more than $26,000 were seized by police here today.

Adolph Morvai, who was found operating four stills on the second floor of a house in the southeast section of the city, tried to convince the officers that he was "only a poor junk dealer" when he was arrested.

WHERE ARE THEY?

Martin's Ferry, O.—This city's new municipal building is not popular as a sleeping place for hoboes. So far this year only nine men have obtained free lodging at night.

The present cold spell did not bring in one drifter for a free sleep. In other years, a cold spell would have meant a full house.

BRINGS SUIT TO CLAIM DAMAGES FOR R. R. INJURY

Hugh Buckwalter, Alpha, who was seriously injured by the collision of a Baltimore and Ohio passenger train with the truck he was driving for The Alpha Seed and Grain Company last December 22, at the Cincinnati avenue crossing in this city, brought suit in common pleas court, Thursday through Attorney Charles L. Darlington to recover $30,000 damages.

Attorney Darlington also brought suit at the same time for The Alpha Seed and Grain Company, to recover $2,650 for the loss of the truck, which was demolished and for other damages sustained by the company through being deprived of the use of a truck for a month. Walker D. Hines, as director general of railroads, is made defendant.

In his petition, Mr. Buckwalter declares that he exercised due caution in approaching the crossing, looking and listening for a train, before he drove onto the track. He says that buildings obstructed his view. He declares that the accident was due to the failure of the defendant to maintain a watchman, gates, or warning device of any kind at the crossing, which he sets forth is a dangerous grade crossing, and in a closely settled section, and also in operating the train at a speed which was in violation of a city ordinance regulating the rate of speed of trains.

He says that his left leg was broken between the knee and hip, that he was otherwise hurt and that his injuries are permanent. He is still in bed, at the Espey Hospital, and unable to put his foot to the floor, and for that reason, he declares, is unable to give the exact extent of his injuries, but that it is certain that his left leg will be shortened by at least an inch because of the injury. He says that he suffers great pain, and to alleviate his sufferings, opiates have to be administered frequently. He is 27 years of age.

RAIL LABOR TO BLACKLIST ALL BILL SUPPORTERS

Washington, Feb. 26.—Railroad labor's political blacklist will be made up of all members of congress who voted for the Cummins-Esch bill, "Labor," the official publication of the railroad unions and the Plumb plan league announced today.

Calling on the 2,600,000 railroad workers to "defeat their friends," at the polls, the paper publishes the full roll call on the bill.

"Organized labor," says the paper, "will now gird itself for the longer struggle. It is a struggle for a full and adequate representation in the management of the railroad industry as well. Its fight over the Cummins-Esch bill was a preliminary skirmish. Labor was compelled to retire. But in this struggle and in this retirement a new solidarity, a new consciousness, has been created that will carry labor into new fields, new ideals and new accomplishments."

SUE FOR PLEDGES

East Liverpool, O.—Civil suits will be brought against persons who have failed to carry out their pledges to contribute to East Liverpool's war chest.

SEN. JOHNSON NOW FORMAL CANDIDATE

Salem, Ore., Feb. 26.—U. S. Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California, is today the sole formal candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the United States in this state. Senator Johnson's name was officially placed before the people of Oregon when Sanfield McDonald, of Portland, appeared at the secretary of state's office and presented the nomination petition. The petition carried no declaration of principles.

Columbus, O.—A Newark woman may become a police woman here, in the event that the Capital city ever has such officials.

FESS AMENDMENT ON PRESIDENT'S DUTIES IS NOW UP

What Constitutes Disability of Chief Executive Decided.

REP. FESS OFFERS PLAN

Would Leave Matter To Decision of U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, Feb. 26.—What constitutes disability of the president of the United States and legislation necessary to fill the office during such disability were to be considered by the house judiciary committee at herings which opened today.

The committee has before it an amendment to the constitution proposed by Representative Fess, of Ohio, which would authorize the United States Supreme court to decide the question of the disability of a President upon request of congress and with such decision of disability the vice president or the cabinet officer in succession shall assume the duties of the president during the period of disability.

It has a number of resolutions on the same subject presented to the White House by various members, chief among them being the resolution offered by Representative Madden, of Illinois, which provides simply for a definition by congress of what shall constitute "disability" on the part of the president and automatic succession to the presidency of the vice president or a cabinet officer next in succession when the disability as defined shall arise.

A resolution by Representative Britten, of Illinois, would make it a disability within the meaning of the constitution for the president to absent himself from the territorial limits of the United States for thirty days or more or to be confined by illness for a like period.

The latter will discontinue its morning edition March 1 and publish only in the afteroon field and Sunday morning

TRAINMEN ROUT A WOULD BE BURGLAR IN CABOOSE OF TRAIN

Eugene Hudson, colored, found a warm reception waiting for him when he attempted to burglarize the caboose of Cincinnati local freight No. 483 at Waynesville at 8:30 o'clock Thursday morning. Hudson is now locked up at Police Headquarters here.

When Conductor Ed. Burdell of Cincinnati and Brakeman Dan Jordan of this city, discovered the man attempting to break open a locker in the caboose, Jordan seized a poker while Burdell used his fists on the intruder. Hudson escaped under a rain of blows and walked the track to Xenia, being arrested by Railroad Detective Latimer at the edge of this city. He was taken to police headquarters where a charge of burglary was placed against him.

The attempted burglary occurred while the freight was stopped at Waynesville and the Conductor and Brakeman were about their duties ahead of the train. When they returned to the caboose, it is alleged they found the negro in the act of breaking open a locker. Jordan struck him with a poker and Burdell felled him with a blow from his fist, but the man escaped.

He told Detective Latimer that one of the men hit him with an "iron bar." The train was on its way to Cincinnati

MAKE LETTER PUBLIC

Washington, Feb. 26.—The Adriatic correspondence between the president and the entente premiers will b made public tomorrow morning, it was announced after a brief conference today.

PRESIDENT REFUSES REQUEST OF RAIL WORKERS FOR WAGE TRIBUNAL

Washington, Feb. 26—President Wilson has informed representatives of railroad labor that he cannot reply to their request for immediate appointment of a tribunal of employers and employes to adjust wage demands until he has taken action o nthe Cummins-Esch bill. This was announced at the White House today.

The presidet had drafted a note to the representatives but the context of the note was a ected by the passage of the Cummins-Esch bill by the senate and he asked Director Generl Hines to inform the labor representatives that he must defer action until the pending bill, which has provisions for labor adjustment boards.

BUSINESS RELATIONS BETWEEN SOVIETS AND ALLIES TO BE OPENED

Washington, Feb. 26.—Business relations will be opened between soviet Russio and the allied countries within a short time, acting Secretary of State Polk predicted today at the White House. He stated that he had not yet seen the reported peace offer, which London dispatches declared soviet Russia had forwarded to theis country. White House officials stated that the peace offer had not arrived here.

While there is every indication that business relations will be established with soviet Russia, the United States will not develop much trade with Russia, in the opinion of Mr. Polk, because Russia has little gold and the exchange rate will be unfavorable. The only trade that is likely to come to this country is that which is by barter.

DON'T BE A "MISERY-FACTORY"

Stop Headaches, Bilious Spells, Colds and Constipation with "Cascarets"—Ideal Physic!

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy disordered stomach and colds.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or merely shocking your insides every few days with Calomel, Salts, Oil or violent Pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels which is now keeping you in constant misery. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience and Cascarets cost so little too.

TOBACCO FACTORY FURNISHES EMPLOYMENT FOR LARGE NUMBER OF COLORED WOMEN OF XENIA

From the land of the tropical sunshine in Cuba and the Porta Ricas, from fields cooled by ocean breezes in Connecticut, from the rolling farm lands of Wisconsin and from the rich agricultural sections of Pennsylvania and Ohio, to the home humidor, the club room, the social gathering, the business man's office and to the pocket of the smiling drummer, is the trail of the tobacco-soothing weed.

For the vast amount of this product from these afar off tobacco fields, the Xenia Stemmery, branch of the American Cigar Company, of New York, is the funnel through which it passes before it reaches the consumer in its completed form. Nurtured by warm sunshine and strengthened by gentle breezes in the summer tobacco fields the product finds an ultimate end in providing employment for 250 colored women in the local factory where it is torn, leaf from stem and prepared for its final stage in the cigar.

Coming here as a branch stemmery of the American Cigar Company ten years ago, the local factory is finding difficulty at present in securing sufficient help to handle the large amount of tobacco which must be prepared here. And this, despite the fact that stemmers, working at piece work, can earn as high as $25 a week, according to E. E. Boxwell, stemmery manager.

Although the local stemmery occupies hundreds of feet of floor space, there is no machinery used in connection with the wark.

When the tobacco is received at the local plant it is put in a casing solution and then is ready to sweat. The sweating process is done in large bulk 10,000 and 15,000 pounds of the tobacco being placed in the sweat at a time, according to the kind of tobacco. Some of it is given this treatment for a month at a time, the sweating room being kept at a temperature of 110 degrees, day and night.

After the sweating process the tobacco is turned over to the colored women employes for stemming, the piece work being done by the pound. The women separate the stem, which is of no use, from the leaf proper, and the latter is packed and shipped to the cigar factories of the company where it is rolled into cigars.

It is the Stemmery that is furnishing part of the very life of Xenia's East End. More colored women can find easy work at excellent pay and they have prospered since the starting of the branch here. At one time the bonus system was in effect here, but was later changed back to straight time.

The company maintains a lunch room in connection with the stemmery where the employes can secure their noon-day meal at cost. Owing to the location of the factory in relation to where most of the help lives, this is a decided attraction. The factory proper occupies the old cordage mill at the extreme West End of Second street, which was for a long time abandoned. At present the Stemmery averages an annual payroll of $80,000 which is earned and spent by Xenia employes.

Many popular brands of cigars are manufactured in the cigar factories of the company, and the confirmed smoker of the well-known Chancellor, may recall as he slips a couple of these weeds in his pocket, that the "raw material" from this perfectly rolled cigar is made, probably once passed through Xenia on its long tour from the growing fields in Cuba to the finishing stages in the cigar factory.

PRIZE WINNERS

Lincoln—Ethel Baker, Sixth Grade.
St. Brigids—Beatrice Beyke.
O. S. and S. O. Home—Louise Carter.

Winners of special prizes were: Central High, Marie Meahl, second, Eleanor Kiernan, third.

Spring Hill, Curtis Stearns, second, Mary Wilson, third.

The special prizes at Central High were taken from the high school fund. The patrons of Spring Hill school offered the special prizes given there.

The winners in the schools were selected by committees named by the teachers. The general committee consisting of Mrs. William Wilson, H. J. Farrell and Dr. Austin M. Patterson will select the winner of the grand local prize of $10 offered by the Chamber of Commerce.

The fifteen prize essays in the schools of the city will be sent to Cincinnati, to the recruiting officer there, and they will be judged with other essays submitted from the Cincinnati district. The winner of the district prize will compete in the national contest at Washington. Two copies of the essays were submitted by the children. Those judged locally bore no name and no mark to indicate the writer. Those which are sent to Cincinnati will bear the name, age, address and school of the writer. The district recruiting officer will appoint a board of three judges to pass upon the essays submitted by the schools of his district. The one selected will be sent to Washington, as the district's entry.

From the entries of the fifty-six districts Secretary Baker and Generals Pershing and March will select three national winners. The three national prizes are a gold, a silver and a bronze medal, suitably engraved. They will be presented by Secretary Baker in Washington, the winners and their parents or guardians being given a free trip to the national capital to receive the gifts.

The local prizes were given by Xenia business men through the Chamber of Commerce. The essays were written in school last Friday.

We desire to sincerely thank all our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our aunt and sister, Mary Elizabeth Evans.

CLEAN UP POISON SOAKED KIDNEYS ADVISES DR. CAREY

THOUSANDS DIE EVERY YEAR BECAUSE THEY ALLOW POISONOUS DEPOSITS TO ACCUMULATE IN KIDNEYS.

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts says Dr. Carey, they are too frail and delicately constructed to treat them rough.

For 40 years I have been prescribing Marshroot for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.

Beware of kidney disease-thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.

If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffs under eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or sideache you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right away.

It has conquered thousands of cases of kidney and bladder diseases and is the medicine you can always depend upon.

IMPORTANT—Dr. Daniel G. Carey has been a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription, "Marshroot" has cured thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS

THERE'S GREAT RELIEF IN EVERY BOTTLE PRESCRIPTION C-2223.

Those who have used Plough's Prescription C-2223 say there is satisfying relief in every bottle—that they were benefited by the treatment after all other rheumatic remedies had failed.

When you buy a bottle Prescription C-2223 it is like having a specialist in your home, because this reliable rheumatic treatment was originated and used by a successful physician for years in his private practice. With this knowledge of drugs and experience in testing the results of his medicine it is to be expected that his prescription—now known and sold as Prescription C-2223—should be a dependable treatment for rheumatism, gout, sciatica, lumbago and neuralgic conditions.

The chemists that make Prescriptionu C-2223 are so sure that you will get relief from your suffering that they will refund the price of two $1.50 bottles if you are not satisfied with the results, provided that you take the medicine according to directions.

Before taking Prescription C-2223 it is very necessary to stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Take a cathartic especially prepared for this purpose—2223 Liver Pills.

Almost any good drug store guarantees and sells $1.50 bottles Prescription C-2223 and the 2223 Liver Pills, or write Dept. 121, 2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., for sample of the pills, literature and 1920 Almanac.

DRUGGIST TOLD ME TO TAKE A BOTTLE OF IT

My Appetite Was Poor, Lost Weight — Felt Bad All Over.

HYPO-COD MADE ME GAIN WEIGHT

"I asked my druggist about it. I was getting so I didn't feel like work at all and just felt tired and droopy all the time. I didn't have much of an appetite either and was weak and nervous so much I lost weight," declared a lady whose address follows.

"My druggist told me Earle's Hypo-Cod was the tonic I needed and I have gained weight—eat more and feel better every way. It is a good tonic alright and I recommend it," continued Miss M. Green, stenographer for the East Side Window Cleaning Co., living at 312 Xenia Ave., Dayton, Ohio.

YOU NEED A TONIC

You need a tonic to bring the bloom or roses back into your cheeks, fill out the hollows and bring your weight back where it belongs. Nobody can do this just by wishing and a cheaper quicker, easier way then with Earle's Hypo-Cod cannot be found. This new triumph of chemistry gives to the user all the medicinal value of good old fashioned cod liver oil with all that fishy, oily taste removed by a secret process. It is so much more powerful that it puts the user back on his or her feet days and weeks sooner and is so nice to take children are fond of its pleasant taste.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by Sohn's Drug Store, (opposite court house) and the leading druggists in all nearby towns. Price $1.25 plus 5c war tax.

TOBACCO FACTORY FURNISHES EMPLOYMENT FOR LARGE NUMBER OF COLORED WOMEN OF XENIA

From the land of the tropical sunshine in Cuba and the Porta Ricas, from fields cooled by ocean breezes in Connecticut, from the rolling farm lands of Wisconsin and from the rich agricultural sections of Pennsylvania and Ohio, to the home humidor, the club room, the social gathering, the business man's office and to the pocket of the smiling drummer, is the trail of the tobacco-soothing weed.

For the vast amount of this product from these afar off tobacco fields, the Xenia Stemmery, branch of the American Cigar Company, of New York, is the funnel through which it passes before it reaches the consumer in its completed form. Nurtured by warm sunshine and strengthened by gentle breezes in the summer tobacco fields the product finds an ultimate end in providing employment for 250 colored women in the local factory where it is torn, leaf from stem and prepared for its final stage in the cigar.

Coming here as a branch stemmery of the American Cigar Company ten years ago, the local factory is finding difficulty at present in securing sufficient help to handle the large amount of tobacco which must be prepared here. And this, despite the fact that stemmers, working at piece work, can earn as high as $25 a week, according to E. E. Boxwell, stemmery manager.

Although the local stemmery occupies hundreds of feet of floor space, there is no machinery used in connection with the wark.

When the tobacco is received at the local plant it is put in a casing solution and then is ready to sweat. The sweating process is done in large bulk 10,000 and 15,000 pounds of the tobacco being placed in the sweat at a time, according to the kind of tobacco. Some of it is given this treatment for a month at a time, the sweating room being kept at a temperature of 110 degrees, day and night.

After the sweating process the tobacco is turned over to the colored women employes for stemming, the piece work being done by the pound. The women separate the stem, which is of no use, from the leaf proper, and the latter is packed and shipped to the cigar factories of the company where it is rolled into cigars.

It is the Stemmery that is furnishing part of the very life of Xenia's East End. More colored women can find easy work at excellent pay and they have prospered since the starting of the branch here. At one time the bonus system was in effect here, but was later changed back to straight time.

The company maintains a lunch room in connection with the stemmery where the employes can secure their noon-day meal at cost. Owing to the location of the factory in relation to where most of the help lives, this is a decided attraction. The factory proper occupies the old cordage mill at the extreme West End of Second street, which was for a long time abandoned. At present the Stemmery averages an annual payroll of $80,000 which is carried and spent by Xenia employes.

Many popular brands of cigars are manufactured in the cigar factories of the company, and the confirmed smoker of the well-known Chancellor, may recall as he slips a couple of these weeds in his pocket, that the "raw material" from this perfectly rolled cigar is made, probably once passed through Xenia on its long tour from the growing fields in Cuba to the finishing stages in the cigar factory.

Lincoln—Ethel Baker, Sixth Grade.
St. Brigids—Beatrice Beyke.
O. S. and S. O. Home—Louise Carter.

Winners of special prizes were: Central High, Marie Meahl, second, Eleanor Kiernan, third.

Spring Hill, Curtis Stearns, second, Mary Wilson, third.

The special prizes at Central High were taken from the high school fund. The patrons of Spring Hill school offered the special prizes given there.

The winners in the schools were selected by committees named by the teachers. The general committee consisting of Mrs. William Wilson, H. J. Farrell and Dr. Austin M. Patterson will select the winner of the grand local prize of $10 offered by the Chamber of Commerce.

The fifteen prize essays in the schools of the city will be sent to Cincinnati, to the recruiting officer there, and they will be judged with other essays submitted from the Cincinnati district. The winner of the district prize will compete in the national contest at Washington. Two copies of the essays were submitted by the children. Those judged locally bore no name and no mark to indicate the writer. Those which are sent to Cincinnati will bear the name, age, address and school of the writer. The district recruiting officer will appoint a board of three judges to pass upon the essays submitted by the schools of his district. The one selected will be sent to Washington, as the district's entry.

From the entries of the fifty-six districts Secretary Baker and Generals Pershing and March will select three national winners. The three national prizes are a gold, a silver and a bronze medal, suitably engraved. They will be presented by Secretary Baker in Washington, the winners and their parents or guardians being given a free trip to the national capital to receive the gifts.

The local prizes were given by Xenia business men through the Chamber of Commerce. The essays were written in school last Friday.

CLEAN UP POISON SOAKED KIDNEYS ADVISES DR. CAREY

THOUSANDS DIE EVERY YEAR BECAUSE THEY ALLOW POISONOUS DEPOSITS TO ACCUMULATE IN KIDNEYS.

Don't flush your kidneys with harsh makeshifts says Dr. Carey, they are too frail and delicately constructed to treat them rough.

For 40 years I have been prescribing Marshroot for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price.

Beware of kidney disease-thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health.

If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffs under eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or sideache you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's Marshroot right away.

It has conquered thousands of cases of kidney and bladder diseases and is the medicine you can always depend upon.

IMPORTANT—Dr. Daniel G. Carey has been a practicing physician for many years and his great prescription, "Marshroot" has cured thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. It is not a patent medicince and is sold through drug stores in order to accommodate his patients. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you.

RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS

THERE'S GREAT RELIEF IN EVERY BOTTLE PRESCRIPTION C-2223.

Those who have used Plough's Prescription C-2223 say there is satisfying relief in every bottle—that they were benefited by the treatment after all other rheumatic remedies had failed.

When you buy a bottle Prescription C-2223 it is like having a specialist in your home, because this reliable rheumatic treatment was originated and used by a successful physician for years in his private practice. With this knowledge of drugs and experience in testing the results of his medicine it is to be expected that his prescription—now known and sold as Prescription C-2223—should be a dependable treatment for rheumatism, gout, sciatica, lumbago and neuralgic conditions.

The chemists that make Prescriptionu C-2223 are so sure that you will get relief from your suffering that they will refund the price of two $1.50 bottles if you are not satisfied with the results, provided that you take the medicine according to directions.

Before taking Prescription C-2223 it is very necessary to stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Take a cathartic especially prepared for this purpose—2223 Liver Pills.

Almost any good drug store guarantees and sells $1.50 bottles Prescription C-2223 and the 2223 Liver Pills, or write Dept. 121, 2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., for sample of the pills, literature and 1920 Almanac.

EAST END NEWS

Henry Burton of Columbus street, died at his home Wednesay morning at 7:45, being ill of pneumonia two weeks. His wife preceded him a little more than three weeks with the same malady. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burton and was born in this city, December 10, 1897.

Besides his mother and father, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Porter, Miss Carrie Burton and Mrs. Lottie Warren, and one brother, James Burton survive him.

Funeral services will be held from Middle Run Baptist church, Friday at one o'clock. Interment in Jamestown, O.

William Lewis Campbell died at the home of his wife, Mrs. Rosa Both Campbell, Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock after a short illness.

He was a son of Mrs. Jennie White, of East Second street, and was born in Cincinnati, O., October 26, 1895. He served nine months in the late war, being at Camp Sherman and Camp Grant. Besides his wife he leaves his mother, stepfather, four sisters, Mrs. Edith Taylor, Germantown, O., Mary, Florence and Blanche Campbell at home; and two brothers, Frank Campbell of Detroit, and Otis White at home. Funeral announced later.

Croup and Cold Troubles Are Best Treated Externally

COLDS are simply inflammation or congestion of the mucous membrane, or lining of the respiratory organs — air passages and lungs. They should be treated just as surface inflammations, such as burns or bruises, are treated—that is, the medication should be applied directly to the inflamed parts. But medication cannot be applied directly to the air passages and lungs except in the form of vapors that can be inhaled, and until the discovery of Vick's VapoRub, there was no efficient, economical method of supplying these vapors.

VICK'S VapoRub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, L. Richardson, who found a way to combine the standard, time-tested remedies—Menthol, Camphor, Turpentine, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Juniper, etc.—in salve form, so that when Vicks is applied to the body, these ingredients are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors, inhaled with each breath all night long, carry the medication direct to the affected parts. At the same time, Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, aiding the vapors inhaled to relieve the congestion.

Spasmodic Croup and Children's Colds

Vicks is particularly recommended to mothers with small children. It is externally applied and, therefore, can be used often and freely with perfect safety. Let the children run out-doors, even in Winter, and get their needed fresh air and exercise, and simply apply a little Vicks over the throat and chest at the first sign of a cold, covering with a hot flannel cloth. For spasmodic croup, rub Vicks freely over the throat and chest until the difficult breathing is relieved. One application is commonly sufficient, and an application at bed time usually prevents a night attack.

Deep Chest Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Coughs

For inflammation of the respiratory organs where there is tightness or soreness, Vicks should be rubbed well over the throat and chest until the skin is red; then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. The bed clothing should be arranged in the form of a funnel, so that the vapors arising may be freely inhaled.

In severe cases, hot, wet cloths should first be applied over the throat and chest to open the pores of the skin before applying Vicks.

If the cough is annoying, small portions of Vicks, the size of a pea, can be swallowed every few hours.

Head Colds, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever

For these troubles, Vicks can be melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled, or a little applied up the nostrils and snuffed back into the air passages. There is no "cure" for Asthma and Hay Fever—Vicks gives temporary relief in some cases.

Used as a Liniment, Salve, Poultice or Plaster

In addition to its vaporizing qualities, Vicks has also been found to be an excellent anti-inflammatory application. It makes a cooling, soothing dressing for such troubles as Bites, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Frost Bite, Headache, Itchings, Poison Oak, Soreness, Sprains, Sunburn, etc.

R. H. GRUBE IS SELECTED HEALTH OFFICER HERE

Dr. R. H. Grube, health officer in Xenia, was elected health commissioner for Greene county by the recently organized county board of health, Wednesday afternoon.

His salary was fixed at $1,200 a year and an allowance of $25 a month was made for transportation expenses.

The duties of the health commissioner under the Griswold amendment to the Hughes health bill, will ze to see that the health laws are enforced in the county. This will require a great deal of attention, and will necessitate the health commissioner spending much of his time visiting the townships and villages. While the law permits the purchase of an automobile for the use of the commissioner, and the employment of nurses, this will not be done by the local board.

Dr. Grube said Thursday that deputies will probably be appointed in each township. The local Red Cross nurses will also assist in the health work.

Tentative plans were made at Wednesday's meeting for the opening of a county health office in the office of Magistrate J. H. McPherson in the Gazette building, where the monthly meeting will be held. Mr. McPherson will probably be employed as clerk for the board.

Members of the county health board, all of whom attended the meeting are: Dr. L. C. Walker, Jamestown, president; Dr. T. W. Treharne, Zimmerman, C. L. Bogle, Yellow Springs, S. S. Earley and Harvey Elam

CITY NOW ARMED CAMP DURING THE TRIAL OF I. W. W.'S

Montesano, Wash., Feb. 26.—Montesano awoke today to find the city like an armed camp, with a detachment of 100 men and several officers of the 25th U. S. Infantry prepared to quell any disturbance which might interfere with the trial of the ten alleged I. W. W. charged with the Centralia armistice day murders. The call for troops was made by Special Prosecutor Herman Allen to Governor Hort. The murder trial was resumed today.

The first matter to be taken up was the insanity defense of Loren Roberts, one of the prisoners.

Sheriff Jeff Bartell of this city declares himself to be of the opinion that the local situation is not such as to warrant the presence of the regulars.

London, Feb. 26.—President Wilson's Adriatic note was taken up for detailed consideration when the council of premiers met today.

The premiers have decided not to reveal the terms of the Turkish treaty until the work is completed, it is understood.

LAUGHS AT DANCE; KILLED IN FIGHT

New York, Feb. 26.—A laugh cost Ralph Caldron, a Porto Rican salesman his life early today. Caldron laughed at the dancing of Padro Ermida, Mexican, at a Madison Avenue ball. In the fight which followed Caldron was stabbed. He died in the ambulance.

"I was insulted," Ermida told the police. "He laughed at my dancing."

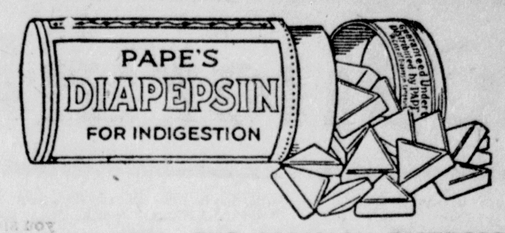

KILBANE STILL CHAMP

New York, Feb. 26.—Johnny Kilbane is still champion of the feather weights today, but his grip on the title is not as firm as it used to be.

The clever Clevelander stood up against Benny Valger, his foremost challenger, for 8 rounds at the Newark Sportsmen's Club and came away with a smile and a lot of easy money.

The Commercial Reserve Fund

The business that possesses a surplus in marketable bonds has an insurance fund against disaster. It has always on hand liquid assets whose value is not in the least affected by the state of the business.

Furthermore, a business needs credit most when credit is hard to get. It is when money is tight and credit strained that there come the best opportunities to buy large quantities of raw material for cash. It is at the end of a period of over expansion, when commercial paper is almost impossible to float, that bills payable press the hardest.

At such times the bond reserve is worth more than it cost. Any bank will loan from 80 to 90% of their market value on sound, readily marketable bonds. So a business can "cash in" on opportunity. We have mentioned only a few of the obvious advantages of owning securities which yield five to six per cent, yet are almost as liquid as money on deposit.

It may interest you to know the experience of corporations who have found the formation of a liquid bond reserve extremely profitable.

Our information is at your disposal. Great consideration is given to the question of a close and quick market in the bonds and short term notes which we offer.

We have those securities best adapted to a commercial reserve fund for the merchant or manufacturer.

Montesano, Wash., Feb. 26.—Montesano awoke today to find the city like an armed camp, with a detachment of 100 men and several officers of the 35th U. S. Infantry prepared to quell any disturbance which might interfere with the trial of the ten alleged I. W. W. charged with the Centralia armistice day murders. The call for troops was made by Special Prosecutor Herman Allen to Governor Hort. The murder trial was resumed today.

The first matter to be taken up was the insanity defense of Loren Roberts, one of the prisoners.

Sheriff Jeff Bartell of this city declares himself to be of the opinion that the local situation is not such as to warrant the presence of the regulars.

PREMIER'S COUNCIL TAKES UP LETTER

London, Feb. 26.—President Wilson's Adriatic note was taken up for detailed consideration when the council of premiers met today.

The premiers have decided not to reveal the terms of the Turkish treaty until the work is completed, it is understood.

LAUGHS AT DANCE; KILLED IN FIGHT

New York, Feb. 26.—A laugh cost Ralph Caldron, a Porto Rican salesman his life early today. Caldron laughed at the dancing of Padro Ermida, Mexican, at a Madison Avenue ball. In the fight which followed Caldron was stabbed. He died in the ambulance.

"I was insulted," Ermida told the police. "He laughed at my dancing."

KILBANE STILL CHAMP

New York, Feb. 26.—Johnny Kilbane is still champion of the feather weights today, but his grip on the title is not as firm as it used to be.

The clever Clevelander stood up against Benny Valger, his foremost challenger, for 8 rounds at the Newark Sportsmen's Club and came away with a smile and a lot of easy money.

The Commercial Reserve Fund

The business that possesses a surplus in marketable bonds has an insurance fund against disaster.. It has always on hand liquid assets whose value is not in the least affected by the state of the business.

Furthermore, a business needs credit most when credit is hard to get. It is when money is tight and credit strained that there come the best opportunities to buy large quantities of raw material for cash. It is at the end of a period of over expansion, when commercial paper is almost impossible to float, that bills payable press the hardest.

At such times the bond reserve is worth more than it cost. Any bank will loan from 80 to 90% of their market value on sound, readily marketable bonds. So a business can "cash in" on opportunity. We have mentioned only a few of the obvious advantages of owning securities which yield five to six per cent, yet are almost as liquid as money on deposit.

It may interest you to know the experience of corporations who have found the formation of a liquid bond reserve extremely profitable.

Our information is at your disposal. Great consideration is given to the question of a close and quick market in the bonds and short term notes which we offer.

We have those securities best adapted to a commercial reserve fund for the merchant or manufacturer.

TO PEOPLE WHO NEVER THINK OF GOING TO CHURCH.

The religious leaders of our community are asking us to give particular attention for a fortnight to the matter of our relation to God.

In a recent sermon Billy Sunday said: "We are in the midst of the most solemn crisis in the world's history, religiously, and God is calling the world back. Unless America does get back to God, back to the Bible, back to godly living, and back to repentance, God will deal with her as he has with the other nations who have drifted away."

One of our early patriots, Patrick Henry, at the end of his will, used these potential words: "I have now disposed of all my property to my family. There is one thing more I wish I could give them, and that is the Christian religion. If they had that, and I had not given them one shilling, they would have been rich, and if they had not that, and I had given them all the world, they would be poor."

Is it a fact then, that the Christian Religion is so over-powerfully valuable, as compared with earthly possessions? We have in Xenia perhaps 10,000 people, and about a dozen churches. Why is it that about three-fourths of these people take no interest in this valuable and important thing, the Christian Religion; that they never think of attending these churches?

Because, in many cases, they were not "raised," (rightly) but like Topsy they just growed up. They were not told that they had an immortal spiritual nature; that they had a Heavenly Father who loved them and whom they should love—hence their perfect indifference to all spiritual matters.

How valuable is that Religion which, while it seems to have in view mainly the enjoyments of a future life, is at the same time the highest happiness of this? Indisputably the believers in the gospel have a great advantage over all others, for if their belief is true they will have their great reward hereafter, and if there be no hereafter, they will be only like the infidel in his eternal sleep, besides having had through life the benefit of an exalted hope.

If we make Religion our concern God will also make it our blessedness. Millions have tested it and found it so. Kindly do not let this article "go in at one ear and out at the other." We join the preachers in urging church attendance.

JOHN BROWN'S GRAVE.

Included in the sale of a 1,200-acre plot of timber land in the Adirondacks is the grave of John Brown, one of America's few martyrs. Lumbering operations will be carried on, says the purchaser, who proposes to make a fortune out of the timber in the tract.

Well, the rasp of the saw won't bother John Brown, neither will his sleep be troubled by the blows of the lumberjack's ax. The placid woods that have so long bowered his last bed may be denuded, but that will only bare to new eyes the modest little monument which marks the grave and recounts the deed of John Brown at Harper's Ferry. Perhaps even a greater monument may result from this apparent sacrilege.

A banker has bought John Brown's grave, and he may exploit it, but it goes without saying that no banker would ever have underwritten the idealistic exploit that brought John Brown to the gallows—and undying fame. Advancing commercialism holds no terrors for the dead hero, nor does his grave demand a more pretentious stone to mark it. For, though they build him a mausoleum of Carrara marble, yet will he remain always in memory the simple-minded martyr to a noble cause. Though they plough up his bones with a steam shovel and his body no longer may "lie mouldering in the grave," his soul will go "marching on" in the memories of thousands of his countrymen and in the annals of the nation.

What has become of that good resolution abolishing promiscuous donations to charity without C. of C. endorsement. Within the past two weeks Xenia merchants and C. of C. officials themselves have twice contributed liberally with nary a sign of any endorsement. It's a good thing—this endorsement plan—let's revive it, it weeds out the wort hy from the unworthy.

Someone says that we ought to "deport the editors who deliberately suppress the news." Amen. Let's also deport the people who want the editors to suppress the news. The woods are full of them.

Future generations will probably refer to Mr. Wilson as the "Mystery President" due of course to his characteristic tendency of constantly keeping the country in a state of apprehension as to what he will do next, and as an example we point to the recent selection of our Progressive Party friend, Bainbridge Colby.

The so-called "whiskey rebellion" in Michigan seems to have developed into a complete farce, but no doubt to some of the panic stricken who impulsively dumped the contents of cellars into the creek, it assumes all the proportions of a tragedy.

A headline in a morning paper reads "right of way given treaty" and we are glad the senate has found the right way to handle the matter at last.

MRS. SARAH DAVID DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. Sarah David, 70, died at her home in Jamestown, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. She had been in failing health for two years and her condition had been critical for the last six months.

Mrs. David was the widow of the late Theodore David and was practically a life-long resident of Jamestown. She is survived by one son, [illegible] daughter, Mrs. B. F. Bingmon of [illegible], long member of the Jamestown M. E. church.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the late home, and will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Cooper, assisted by Rev. Charles Moorman. Interment in the Jamestown cemetery.

"BABY STRIKE" ENDS IN COMPLETE ROUT

Paris, Feb. 26.—The first official "baby strike" has been broken by the French government at Saint Ouen. The socialist administration of the town had placarded the city hall and other buildings with placards calling upon the women to refuse to bear anymore babies until the cost of living had been reduced and guaranty was given that there would be no more wars. The prefect of the department of the Sein served an ultimatum on the socialists that the strike must end and after a long meeting of the municipal council, the mayor announced that the "baby strikers" had surrendered unconditionally.

MOTORAIDS

One car owner I know used the following method of keeping his car warm in his garage in winter. An old steam radiator was procured and laid flat on the garage floor and directly under the motor of the car when standing in its usual location.

This was piped to the steam heater in the dwelling, the pipes being buried below the frost line. A forked iron rod, with a handle, was run down through the partition of the mans bedroom and connected with the shut off valve located in the basement near the heater. This was ordinarily kept closed.

When my friend, who was a doctor had a night call, the steam was turned into the radiator by means of the handle in the bedroom, and by the time the doctor was dressed and had opened the garage, the radiator was hot, and the rising heat had warmed the motor to such an extent that starting was easily effected.

If all drivers were like you and me, of course, there would never be any accidents. But we've got to include the other fellow in our driving calculations. He is often reckless, and when we give him two thirds of the road, he tries to take three fourths. Quick thinking, backed by quick action, is then our chief reliance.

LABOR PARTY NOW AGAINST READING OF IRISH RULE BILL

London, Feb. 26.—The leaders of the labor party today prepared a motion opposing the second reading of the government's new Irish home rule bill in the house of commons, on the ground that it will not lead to a settlement of the Irish question, the Daily News revealed.

The Daily Chronicle states that the measure provides a joint court of appeals for all of Ireland. The idea is in government circles is to have the bill referred at once to a joint committee of both houses of parliament, according to the Daily Chronicle.

When the bill was introduced in the house of commons by Ian Macpherson chief secretary for Ireland, only the title was read and none of its details divulged.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Let "Danderine" save your hair and double its beauty

Oh, girls, such an abundance of thick, heavy, invigorated hair; a perfect mass of wavy, silky hair, gloriously fluffy, bright and so easy to manage.

Just moisten a cloth with a little "Danderine" and carefully draw it it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this magically removes all dirt, excess oil and grease, but your hair is not left brittle, dry, stringy or faded, but charmingly soft, with glossy, golden gleams and tender lights. The youthful glow, tints and color are again in your hair.

"Danderine" is a tonic-beautifier. Besides doubling the beauty of the hair at once, it checks dandruff and stops falling hair. Get delightful Danderine for a few cents at any drug or toilet counter and use it as a dressing and invigorator as told on bottle.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CENTRAL HIGH WILL END SEASON WITH GAME ON FRIDAY

The Central High five will tackle Norwood at the rink Friday night.

This will probably be the last game of the season played on the local floor unless a return game is scheduled with Yellow Springs and it will be the ast chance to witness a basketbal game this season as the Bradys have already wound up their season and disbanded.

Not much is known concerning the strength of the Cincinnati quintet but they usually place a strong team on the floor and the combination representing them this year will probably be no exception. Early in the season they played Steele at Dayton and the Gem City crowd had little trouble in winning 42 to 13.

Coach Faires is working his charges hard for the finale and the blue and white aggregation should put up a real opposition.

Owing to the play being presented at the opera house under the auspices of the high school the game will be called at six o'clock in order that it may be over in time for the performance. No admission will be charged.

SELECTED W. C. T. U. DELEGATE OF GREENE COUNTY AT MEETING

Mrs. Carrie L. Flatter, president of the Greene County Women's Christian Temperance Union, was selected as county delegate to the W. C. T. U. regional conference to be held in Indianapolis the last of this week and the first of next week, and the county executive meeting which was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. O. Custis, North Detroit street. Mrs. M. R. Snodgrass was named as alternate.

Among the matters discussed by the superintendents and other county officers attending the meeting was the coming visit of Mrs Mary Jennings of Marion, a state worker, who will be here the middle of April. She will visit all the local councils in the county, reviving interest.

Mrs. Snodgrass talked about the work that is being done by the home nursing and hygiene classes conducted by the Red Cross. As an example of the worth of the home nursing course she told the story of two local colored women, graduates of the classes, who had been engaged as nurses during the influenza epidemic. Unassisted, one pulled a family of five, and another a family of seven through the malady. All were seriously ill.

LIQUOR STOCKS CONFISCATED IN DAYTON RAIDS

Five men were arrested and large liquor stocks confiscated by police officers in Dayton Wednesday night, following spectacular raids on places where it is alleged liquor including gin and raisin jack, were kept in violation of the federal prohibition law.

As a result of the raids, Vandal Parkes, 59, Paul Nositz, 39 and Joe Welch, 26, all of 509 Keawee street, were arrested charged with violation of the prohibition act, Harry Purcells 37, 566 West Second street, was charged with operating two stills.

The entire front part of police headquarters was filled with the liquor seized. Raisins, raisin jack, gin, corn mash and other completed liquors

Heart and Home Problems

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a senior in high school and am in love with a boy in my class. He is always gentlemanly to me and I am quite sure he likes me. Yet when there is a bunch of us together and the other fellows speak of taking us anywhere he always slips away.

I have given him many chances to ask for dates, but he won't ask. He isn't shy and he has money. Do you think he cares for me when he acts so? He walks from school with me, but what can I do to get him to take me places? SUNBEAM.

The boy may like you, but he does not care for you to any extent or he would want to take you places. There is nothing you can do except to remain friendly and to accept invitations from other young men if they invite you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am forty-two years old and have been married for three years. My husband left me in three months. I have found I never loved him, he treated me so mean.

I am in love with another man. He says he loves me and brings me presents. I never had anyone so good to me. He is married but has not lived with his wife for nine years and says he never will again, for he wants me.

I am worried some times, for he tells me he is coming and does not. He works hard and says he is working. He has to work part of the time nights. Do you think he means all right?

I dearly love him and would be heartbroken to give him up. I have never told him I cared for him, although he has tried to get me to tell him that I care. He says he cannot give me up. WORRIED.

The man is probably telling the truth when he says he has to work at night. If he seems reliable in other respects you have no reason to doubt him.

It seems to me that both of you should secure divorces and marry. Time has proved that your former marriages were a failure and after so long a separation from your husband and his wife there is no reason why you should not marry. Be very sure, however, that you know your mind and the character of the man you are marrying. "Single blessedness" is better than an unhappy marriage.

• • •

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years of age, married to a man thirty-four. We are very happy and no one could be happier that I know of, but he has one fault which I do not like. He will go to the poolroom and sometimes stay the longest part of the night. How can I break him of it and still hold his love and respect?

OLD MAN'S DARLING.

There are many worse habits than to go to a poolroom. I can see that this is most annoying, but you may be thankful that your husband chooses men for his companions and not other women. You have not mentioned how often your husband goes. If he is at home all but one night a week, I think you have little to worry you and should let your husband enjoy the poolroom as other men enjoy their clubs.

When boys go to poolrooms there is a chance that they will learn bad habits from undesirable associates. Your husband is a man now with fixed habits and this pastime will do little to change his character.

If he goes oftener than once a week, tel him that it makes you unhappy to have him away so much of the time. Ask him to limit his games to one night a week, and the rest of the time be at home or take you places. If you invite his friends to come to your home, he will probably enjoy their company there as much as in the poolroom.

COURT RECORDS ARE INVESTIGATED IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 26.—Hurrying into the court records the admission of fifty of the 123 defendants made before the grand jury occupied a portion of today's session of the Newberry vote fraud and conspiracy trial, in line with the government's efforts to rush its case to a conclusion.

These and the statements of fifty more witnesses are expected to end the case for the government, and it is hoped this will be accomplished by Saturday or Monday.

DIES ENROUTE TO GET BODY OF SOLDIER SON

New York, Feb. 26.—The body of Henry Russell, vice president and general counsel of the Michigan Central Railroad, was taken to his home in Detroit today. Mr. Russell died here last night of pneumonia, while en route to France to bring back the body of his son, killed during the war.

MAY CLOSE ALL MOVIE HOUSES IN CHICAGO SOON

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The controversy between Chicago motion picture theater owners and union operators, which may result in the closing of all movie houses here Monday, was carried by the union men to New York today. Charles C. Shay, president of the international alliance of the theatrical stage employes and motion picture employes, with headquarters in New York, is to be visited by local heads of the union Friday. They will ask him to back them in their fights with the Chicago theater owners, and, if a lockout or strike results, to institute a boycott against all film companies in the United States and Canada who continue to do business with Chicago movie houses.

Legitimate and vaudeville theaters will not be affected, the union heads said.

POLK WILL STAND BY PRESIDENT IT IS NOW REPORTED

Washington, Feb. 26.—"I intend to stick and help the president all I can said Acting Secretary of State Polk today, commenting on reports that he would resign after Bainbridge Colby takes office as secretary of state.

"I have no announcement to make," said Mr. Polk, who called at the White House to confer with Secretary Tumulty. He indicated however, that he still desired to leave official life as soon as he could do so with the consent of the president.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenrhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill has been appointed agent for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

Heart and Home Problems

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a senior in high school and am in love with a boy in my class. He is always gentlemanly to me and I am quite sure he likes me. Yet when there is a bunch of us together and the other fellows speak of taking us anywhere he always slips away.

I have given him many chances to ask for dates, but he won't ask. He isn't shy and he has money. Do you think he cares for me when he acts so? He walks from school with me, but what can I do to get him to take me places? SUNBEAM.

The boy may like you, but he does not care for you to any extent or he would want to take you places. There is nothing you can do except to remain friendly and to accept invitations from other young men if they invite you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am forty-two years old and have been married for three years. My husband left me in three months. I have found I never loved him, he treated me so mean.

I am in love with another man. He says he loves me and brings me presents. I never had anyone so good to me. He is married but has not lived with his wife for nine years and says he never will again, for he wants me.

I am worried some times, for he tells me he is coming and does not. He works hard and says he is working. He has to work part of the time nights. Do you think he means all right?

I dearly love him and would be heartbroken to give him up. I have never told him I cared for him, although he has tried to get me to tell him that I care. He says he cannot give me up. WORRIED.

The man is probably telling the truth when he says he has to work at night. If he seems reliable in other respects you have no reason to doubt him.

It seems to me that both of you should secure divorces and marry. Time has proved that your former marriages were a failure and after so long a separation from your husband and his wife there is no reason why you should not marry. Be very sure, however, that you know your mind and the character of the man you are marrying. "Single blessedness" is better than an unhappy marriage.

• • •

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years of age, married to a man thirty-four. We are very happy and no one could be happier that I know of, but he has one fault which I do not like. He will go to the poolroom and sometimes stay the longest part of the night. How can I break him of it and still hold his love and respect? OLD MAN'S DARLING.

There are many worse habits than to go to a poolroom. I can see that this is most annoying, but you may be thankful that your husband chooses men for his companions and not other women. You have not mentioned how often your husband goes. If he is at home all but one night a week, I think you have little to worry you and should let your husband enjoy the poolroom as other men enjoy their clubs.

When boys go to poolrooms there is a chance that they will learn bad habits from undesirable associates. Your husband is a man now with fixed habits and this pastime will do little to change his character.

If he goes oftener than once a week, tel him that it makes you unhappy to have him away so much of the time. Ask him to limit his games to one night a week, and the rest of the time be at home or take you places. If you invite his friends to come to your home, he will probably enjoy their company there as much as in the poolroom.

COURT RECORDS ARE INVESTIGATED IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 26.—Hurrying into the court records the admission of fifty of the 123 defendants made before the grand jury occupied a portion of today's session of the Newberry vote fraud and conspiracy trial, in line with the government's efforts to rush its case to a conclusion.

These and the statements of fifty more witnesses are expected to end the case for the government, and it is hoped this will be accomplished by Saturday or Monday.

DIES ENROUTE TO GET BODY OF SOLDIER SON

New York, Feb. 26.—The body of Henry Russell, vice president and general counsel of the Michigan Central Railroad, was taken to his home in Detroit today. Mr. Russell died here last night of pneumonia, while en route to France to bring back the body of his son, killed during the war.

MAY CLOSE ALL MOVIE HOUSES IN CHICAGO SOON

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The controversy between Chicago motion picture theater owners and union operators, which may result in the closing of all movie houses here Monday, was carried by the union men to New York today. Charles C. Shay, president of the international alliance of the theatrical stage employes and motion picture employes, with headquarters in New York, is to be visited by local heads of the union Friday. They will ask him to back them in their fights with the Chicago theater owners, and, if a lockout or strike results, to institute a boycott against all film companies in the United States and Canada who continue to do business with Chicago movie houses.

Legitimate and vaudeville theaters will not be affected, the union heads said.

POLK WILL STAND BY PRESIDENT IT IS NOW REPORTED

Washington, Feb. 26.—"I intend to stick and help the president all I can said Acting Secretary of State Polk today, commenting on reports that he would resign after Bainbridge Colby takes office as secretary of state.

"I have no announcement to make," said Mr. Polk, who called at the White House to confer with Secretary Tumulty. He indicated however, that he still desired to leave official life as soon as he could do so with the consent of the president.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

WILBERFORCE GOES OVER TOP IN CAMPAIGN

Wilberforce University's debt was more than cleared, at the rally held in connection with the Founder's Day celebration at the institution Wednesday.

The entire amount subscribed was $41,151.16 being well over the amount of debt that has been facing the institution. A great part of this money was collected in the different districts presided over by the Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, which supports the University proper.

Bishop Joshua H. Jones, of the Central District of the A. M. E. church and by reason of this fact, president of the Board of directors of Wilberforce University, presided at the rally and made the first subscription of $1,000 and other friends of the institution followed. The pledges in process of collection amount to $10,000, the apportionment from churches in process of collection amounts to $15,000 all of which must be paid by April 1.

The Founder's Day meetings during the day were largely attended, enthusiasm being shown because of the lifting of the University debt. Many former graduates of the University were present. Addresses were made by Rev. J. C. Brewer, Covington, Ky., Rev. R. B. Smith, Grange, N. J., Rev. Joseph Gomez, Detroit, Mich., Rev. H. P. Jones, Pittsburg. Rev. E. A. Clark, Columbus, besides Bishop Jones and others.

The speakers, while expressing gratitude toward the state for the work it had done in connection with the University, were unanimous in their support of the proposition to purchase the State's interest here, in order to put an end to contention and bickerings between the University and the State Normal departments, which have prevailed for the past few years.

The sentiment was enthusiastically applauded by the visitors, patrons and students.

BOY SCOUTS TO BUILD SUMMER CAMP

Boy Scout Troop No. 7, of Belmont, has received a large strip of land off the 60-acre Mills farm north of Bellbrook, where they intend to build a summer camp.

The farm has come to be known lately as the Winnifred Glen Bungalow farm, and is one of the most picturesque in that section. It is said that other parts of the farm will be made into a state game preserve and another section into a summer pleasure camp.

DO ALL MY HOUSEWORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly stand, says Mrs. Kwarcinski.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered with displacement and irregularities and I did not know what to do. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and use the Sanative Wash so I took her advice and used these remedies and cured myself. I feel fine and do all my housework which I could not do before, as I could hardly stand up and I have three healthy children. You can use this letter if you wish, for your remedy is certainly wonderful for sick, run down women."—Mrs. A. KWARCINSKI, 3627 W. Oakdale Ave., Chicago, Ill.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration, and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Women who suffer are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

WILBERFORCE GOES OVER TOP IN CAMPAIGN

Wilberforce University's debt was more than cleared, at the rally held in connection with the Founder's Day celebration at the institution Wednesday.

The entire amount subscribed was $41.151.16 being well over the amount of debt that has been facing the institution. A great part of this money was collected in the different districts presided over by the Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, which supports the University proper.

Bishop Joshua H. Jones, of the Central District of the A. M. E. church and by reason of this fact, president of the Board of directors of Wilberforce University, presided at the rally and made the first subscription of $1,000 and other friends of the institution followed. The pledges in process of collection amount to $10,000, the apportionment from churches in process of collection amounts to $15,000 all of which must be paid by April 1.

The Founder's Day meetings during the day were largely attended, enthusiasm being shown because of the lifting of the University debt. Many former graduates of the University were present. Addresses were made by Rev. J. C. Brewer, Covington, Ky., Rev. R. B. Smith, Grange, N. J., Rev. Joseph Gomez, Detroit, Mich., Rev. H. P. Jones, Pittsburg. Rev. E. A. Clark, Columbus, besides Bishop Jones and others.

The speakers, while expressing gratitude toward the state for the work it had done in connection with the University, were unanimous in their support of the proposition to purchase the State's interest here, in order to put an end to contention and bickerings between the University and the State Normal departments, which have prevailed for the past few years.

The sentiment was enthusiastically applauded by the visitors, patrons and students.

BOY SCOUTS TO BUILD SUMMER CAMP

Boy Scout Troop No. 7, of Belmont, has received a large strip of land off the 60-acre Mills farm north of Bellbrook, where they intend to build a summer camp.

The farm has come to be known lately as the Winnifred Glen Bungalow farm, and is one of the most picturesque in that section. It is said that other parts of the farm will be made into a state game preserve and another section into a summer leasure camp.

DO ALL MY HOUSEWORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly stand, says Mrs. Kwarcinski.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered with displacement and irregularities and I did not know what to do. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and use the Sanative Wash so I took her advice and used these remedies and cured myself. I feel fine and do all my housework which I could not do before, as I could hardly stand up and I have three healthy children. You can use this letter if you wish, for your remedy is certainly wonderful for sick, run down women."—Mrs. A. KWARCINSKI, 3627 W. Oakdale Ave., Chicago, Ill.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration, and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Women who suffer are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

Black Silk Stove Polish is different. It does not dry out; can be used to the last drop; liquid and paste one quality; absolutely no waste; no dust or dirt. You get your money's worth.

Black Silk Stove Polish

is not only most economical, but it gives a brilliant, silky lustre that cannot be obtained with any other polish. Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off—it lasts four times as long as ordinary polish—so it saves you time, work and money.

Don't forget—when you want stove polish be sure to ask for Black Silk. If it isn't the best stove polish you ever used—your dealer will refund your money.

Black Silk Stove Polish Works, Sterling, Illinois.

Use Black Silk Air Drying Iron Enamel on grates, registers, stove-pipes, and automobile tire rims. Prevents rusting. Try it.

Use Black Silk Metal Polish for silverware, nickel, tinware, or brass. It works quickly, easily, and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

...EN BREAK WITH OTTOSING FIVES TAKEN BY LOCALS

The Central High basketball squad scored a win and a defeat at the rink, Wednesday night, the first team losing out to Beavercreek 21 to 20, while the second string men won from Beaver Seconds 18 to 11.

The locals secured the lead at the start of the game when Bales scored a pretty ringer but they were unable to stay in the front and were trailing on the short end of a 9 to 6 score at the end of the half.

In the second half the wearers of the blue and white came back strong and outplayed and outscored their opponents but they fell one point short of overcoming the lead established in the initial period.

Hudson played a strong game for the locals dropping in five baskets in the last half and playing well on the floor. Bales located the hoops for a couple of ringers and added four points to his total on fouls. Riddell played consistently at guard.

H. Brill was the shining light for the Beaver outfit, scoring seven baskets, while L. Brill also played a good game.

Sift flour and measure, then add baking powder, salt, sugar and sift three times. Add eggs, melted butter, milk and beat hard. Fry on well-greased waffle iron.

DISCOVERIES

A Discarded old high-chair may have the top sawed off, thus making a kitchen stool of, just the right height.

When Frying Doughnuts or cruellers turn them over the instant they float to the top of the fat. The old way was to allow them to brown before turning; but by turning them over once, a coating is formed which prevents the fat from soaking into the dough. They are turned again so that they may brown on both sides. Then drain on paper.

DO IT NOW.

A worthy slogan and one that all should adopt, for it is human nature to "Put it Off." Do you realize that now is the time to select the monument or marker which you wish to see upon your lot when the beautiful days of spring and summer arrive? So many folks wait until only a few weeks before memorial day and then expect the work erected promptly, when it could have been made so easy by "doing it now." That's Right, Say "I Want CELERY KING"

Take a cup to regulate your bowels to purify your blood and make you strong so you can withstand an attack of grippe if it happens to come along this winter. It's one great vegetable laxative and it won't cost you but a few cents to find it out. Children like it.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR STIFFNESS AWAY

Rub pain from back with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

BY JANE PHELPS

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

INVITATIONS

CHAPTER 62

"Please come to my poverty party. It will be held in the kitchen on October 19—The Poor Weeds."

"Just look at this, Gerry!" Robert said, laughing heartily as he handed me the note written on a piece of brown paper bag such as is used to deliver groceries in.

"Isn't that lovely!" I exclaimed with enthusiasm. I said nothing to Robert of my conversation with Frank Weed, so he was really surprised.

"But what kind of a party is a poverty party?" he inquire. "It seems to me we have that sort nearly all the time."

"Nonsense! This is a real party, not a thing to grouch about. I don't know much about it, only I believe the guests wear their oldest clothes, (etc). I wonder who they are going to have besides us."

"Oh, probably the Murphy's."

"Them of course! I was wondering if they would ask Mary. I wish they would she makes things so lively."

The 19th of October fell upon Saturday that year, and I knew that was the reason Betty had chosen that date. We were all working people, and she knew that we could stay later Saturday night.

I called her up and told her we were delighted with the quaint invitations and would surely be on hand.

"Who else have you invited?" I asked.

"The Murphy's, Marion Hovey, and Jack Alder, Mary Ryan, and you and Robert. I wish I knew some nice chap to ask so Mary wouldn't be the odd girl. Can't you help me out?"

"Why yes, I think I can. The thought that Gardner Kenyon would be available flashed over me, "I have spoken to you of Mr. Kenyon, the young man I met in the mountains. I think he would come."

"Give me his address and he shall have a bid. What will he think tho?"

"Oh, he'll fit in all right!" I knew he would. It was one of his charms that no matter where he was or who was about, he was always self-possessed and easy—that is, he always had been whenever I had seen him.

I gave her Gardner's address. Without quite realizing it the party took on an added interest for me; I was more anxious to go. Not that I was at all in love with Gardner, but I liked him immensely. Then, too, he took me out of myself, made me forget that Robert was grumpy, and —I did not know this until later; did not realize it, I mean—he made me forget I was a business woman. Someway when I was with him I never thought of the shop. With Robert I found it a never failing subject of conversation, not dreaming that I was boring him to death with my talk of hats, and at the same time continually emphasizing my earning capacity, and so making him uncomfortable.

I heve heard, and I guess it is true, that women cannot dismiss their business as a man can. They talk about it at any and all times. They are too new in the business world to forget it when they are at home, or with others. It is of such vital interest to them, is so like a new toy, that they hate to lay it aside even for the sake of socialibility. It is a mistake—one I learned, but only when it was too late.

Betty called me up at the shop and told me:

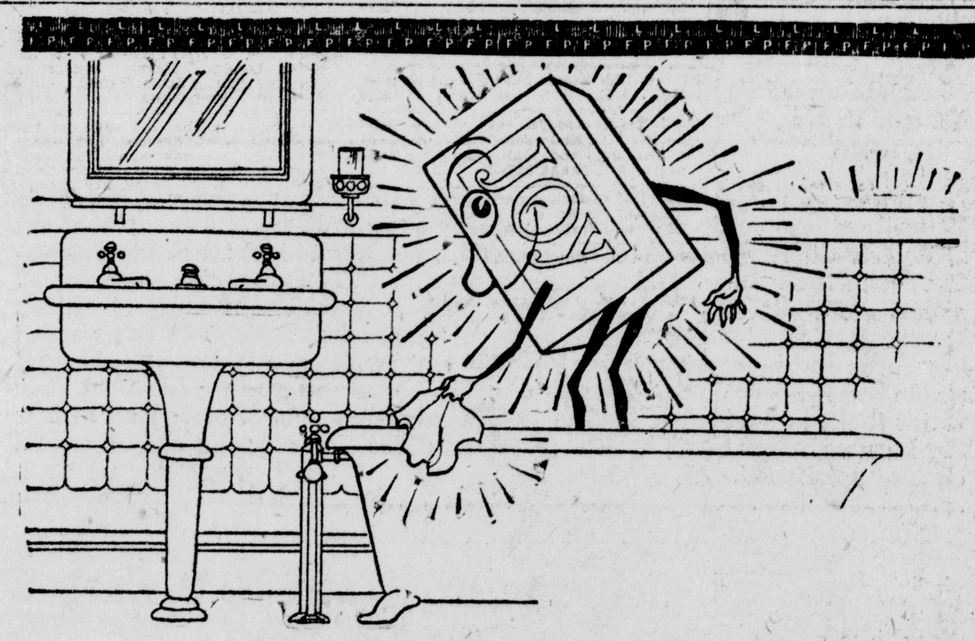

"Mr Kenyon wrote me the nicest note and said he would be delighted to come. I felt as if I knew him after reading it. I was afraid I should be a little embarrassed with my poverty party, but I shan't. I told him to wear the oldest things he had, and he promised."

That night I told Robert who was going, and watched him closely when I mentioned Marion Hovey's name. He did not change expression, simply remarking that we ought to have a good time. I spent the rest of the evening getting out the things we were to wear—the party was the next evening. I found an old dress in my trunk that I had saved because the color was particularly becoming, altho the dress I had considered past wearing. Then I discovered an old grap suit that Robert had discarded, and in some way neglected to give away. With old shoes, (etc.) we would do very well.

"It won't be any trouble for me to go to a poverty party," Mary said when we talked it over at luncheon on Saturday. "But if it had been a fancy dress ball little Mary Ryan would have sent her regrets."

Tomorrow—The Poverty Party.

Heart and Home Problems

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a senior in high school and am in love with a boy in my class. He is always gentlemanly to me and I am quite sure he likes me. Yet when there is a bunch of us together and the other fellows speak of taking us anywhere he always slips away.

I have given him many chances to ask for dates, but he won't ask. He isn't shy and he has money. Do you think he cares for me when he acts so? He walks from school with me, but what can I do to get him to take me places? SUNBEAM.

The boy may like you, but he does not care for you to any extent or he would want to take you places. There is nothing you can do except to remain friendly and to accept invitations from other young men if they invite you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am forty-two years old and have been married for three years. My husband left me in three months. I have found I never loved him, he treated me so mean.

I am in love with another man. He says he loves me and brings me presents. I never had anyone so good to me. He is married but has not lived with his wife for nine years and says he never will again, for he wants me.

I am worried some times, for he tells me he is coming and does not. He works hard and says he is working. He has to work part of the time nights. Do you think he means all right?

I dearly love him and would be heartbroken to give him up. I have never told him I cared for him, although he has tried to get me to tell him that I care. He says he cannot give me up. WORRIED.

The man is probably telling the truth when he says he has to work at night. If he seems reliable in other respects you have no reason to doubt him.

It seems to me that both of you should secure divorces and marry. Time has proved that your former marriages were a failure and after so long a separation from your husband and his wife there is no reason why you should not marry. Be very sure, however, that you know your mind and the character of the man you are marrying. "Single blessedness" is better than an unhappy marriage.

• • •

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years of age, married to a man thirty-four. We are very happy and no one could be happier that I know of, but he has one fault which I do not like. He will go to the poolroom and sometimes stay the longest part of the night. How can I break him of it and still hold his love and respect?

OLD MAN'S DARLING.

There are many worse habits than to go to a poolroom. I can see that this is most annoying, but you may be thankful that your husband chooses men for his companions and not other women. You have not mentioned how often your husband goes. If he is at home all but one night a week, I think you have little to worry you and should let your husband enjoy the poolroom as other men enjoy their clubs.

When boys go to poolrooms there is a chance that they will learn bad habits from undesirable associates. Your husband is a man now with fixed habits and this pastime will do little to change his character.

If he goes oftener than once a week, tel him that it makes you unhappy to have him away so much of the time. Ask him to limit his games to one night a week, and the rest of the time be at home or take you places. If you invite his friends to come to your home, he will probably enjoy their company there as much as in the poolroom.

COURT RECORDS ARE INVESTIGATED IN NEWBERRY TRIAL

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 26.—Hurrying into the court records the admission of fifty of the 123 defendants made before the grand jury occupied a portion of today's session of the Newberry vote fraud and conspiracy trial, in line with the government's efforts to rush its case to a conclusion.

These and the statements of fifty more witnesses are expected to end the case for the government, and it is hoped this will be accomplished by Saturday or Monday.

DIES ENROUTE TO GET BODY OF SOLDIER SON

New York, Feb. 26.—The body of Henry Russell, vice president and general counsel of the Michigan Central Railroad, was taken to his home in Detroit today. Mr. Russell died here last night of pneumonia, while en route to France to bring back the body of his son, killed during the war.

MAY CLOSE ALL MOVIE HOUSES IN CHICAGO SOON

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The controversy between Chicago motion picture theater owners and union operators, which may result in the closing of all movie houses here Monday, was carried by the union men to New York today. Charles C. Shay, president of the international alliance of the theatrical stage employes and motion picture employes, with headquarters in New York, is to be visited by local heads of the union Friday. They will ask him to back them in their fights with the Chicago theater owners, and, if a lockout or strike results, to institute a boycott against all film companies in the United States and Canada who continue to do business with Chicago movie houses.

Legitimate and vaudeville theaters will not be affected, the union heads said.

POLK WILL STAND BY PRESIDENT IT IS NOW REPORTED

Washington, Feb. 26.—"I intend to stick and help the president all I can said Acting Secretary of State Polk today, commenting on reports that he would resign after Bainbridge Colby takes office as secretary of state.

"I have no announcement to make," said Mr. Polk, who called at the White House to confer with Secretary Tumulty. He indicated however, that he still desired to leave official life as soon as he could do so with the consent of the president.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Discoverer Tells Druggists Not to Take a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allenrhu Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Sayre & Hemphill has been appointed agent for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

EPIDEMIC OF FEVER

Kipton, O.,—An epidemic of scarlet fever which has been prevalent here for the past several days has afflicted about half of the families according to health authorities today. Schools and churches are closed and village officials have placed a ban on all gatherings.

DON'T NEGLECT THE LITTLE ONES

Mrs. J. S. Pitson, 376 E. 156th St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I can't speak too highly of Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has a cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while." Children like it. It contains no opiates. It is healing, soothing, prompt in action. Sayre & Hemphill.

NEGLECTED COUGHS BRING REGRET

No one can afford to neglect a cough or cold. Neglect often causes serious results. The best time to doctor is when the first indications of a cough or cold appears. Coughing weakens the delicate membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This makes a fertile field for the development of germs. The cold, grip, tonsilitis or influenza germ should be killed before they have time to get imbeded into this delicate membrane. For 50 cents you can get three ounces of Glando Pine. Mix this with enough syrup or honey to make a pint and you have a safe, sure and reliable remedy to use. It takes hold of a cough in a hurry. The first dose opens the air cells and makes you breathe deep and easy. It strengthens the membranes and destroys the cold, grip or tonsilitis germs before they begin to develop. Glando Pine is easily prepared. Directions, accompany each bottle. It tastes well and can be given to young children.

Don't be careless, but begin today to safeguard yourself against epidemics of coughs, colds, grip or influenza. Once you have used Glando Pine you will understand why people who have used it, always keep it in their homes. A dependable remedy at hand means a great deal to any family. Remember the name Glando Pine. You can get it of your druggist or it will be sent you by The Glando-Aid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HOUSTONIA AIDS NATURE'S OILING OF ACHEY JOINTS

When joints twinge and throb and pain it's sure that nature has been unable to keep the body in proper trim. Then the thing to do is give nature a help and yourself relief with a gentle massage of Houstonia. This soothing liniment penetrates to the very cause of the trouble and quickly ends your pain.

Your home should never be without Houstonia, the wonderful remedy that is more than an ordinary liniment. Houstonia relieves not by counter irritation but by penetration to the source of pain in a way that makes relief permanent. It also contains special antiseptic ingredients of unusually healing qualities found in no other liniment, and is the safest remedy you can use on cuts, bruises, burns, scalds and all sore spots. Ask your druggist for House-tone-e-ah (The Original Jones' Liniment) with Dr. Jones' picture on the yellow label. 25c, 50c and $1.00. The Dr. J. C. Jones Co., So. Charleston, O.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

WILBERFORCE GOES OVER TOP IN CAMPAIGN

Wilberforce University's debt was more than cleared, at the rally held in connection with the Founder's Day celebration at the institution Wednesday.

The entire amount subscribed was $41.151.16 being well over the amount of debt that has been facing the institution. A great part of this money was collected in the different districts presided over by the Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, which supports the University proper.

Bishop Joshua H. Jones, of the Central District of the A. M. E. church and by reason of this fact, president of the Board of directors of Wilberforce University, presided at the rally and made the first subscription of $1,000 and other friends of the institution followed. The pledges in process of collection amount to $10,000, the apportionment from churches in process of collection amounts to $15,000 all of which must be paid by April 1.

The Founder's Day meetings during the day were largely attended, enthusiasm being shown because of the lifting of the University debt. Many former graduates of the University were present. Addresses were made by Rev. J. C. Brewer, Covington, Ky., Rev. R. B. Smith, Grange, N. J., Rev. Joseph Gomez, Detroit, Mich., Rev. H. P. Jones, Pittsburg, Rev. E. A. Clark, Columbus, besides Bishop Jones and others.

The speakers, while expressing gratitude toward the state for the work it had done in connection with the University, were unanimous in their support of the proposition to purchase the State's interest here, in order to put an end to contention and bickerings between the University and the State Normal departments, which have prevailed for the past few years.

The sentiment was enthusiastically applauded by the visitors, patrons and students.

BOY SCOUTS TO BUILD SUMMER CAMP

Boy Scout Troop No. 7, of Belmont, has received a large strip of land off the 60-acre Mills farm north of Bellbrook, where they intend to build a summer camp.

The farm has come to be known lately as the Winnifred Glen Bungalow farm, and is one of the most picturesque in that section. It is said that other parts of the farm will be made into a state game preserve and another section into a summer leasure camp.

DO ALL MY HOUSEWORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly stand, says Mrs. Kwarcinski.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered with displacement and irregularities and I did not know what to do. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and use the Sanative Wash so I took her advice and used these remedies and cured myself. I feel fine and do all my housework which I could not do before, as I could hardly stand up and I have three healthy children. You can use this letter if you wish, for your remedy is certainly wonderful for sick, run down women."—Mrs. A. KWARCINSKI, 3627 W. Oakdale Ave., Chicago, Ill.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration, and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Women who suffer are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

GREENE COUNTY HAS ABUNDANCE OF AUTOMOBILES

Of 53 counties larger than Greene county, in this state, only 42 of them have more motor vehicles than this county.

This fact is proven by the map showing the number of automobiles in each county, recently sent out from the office of Secretary of State, Harvey G. Smith, and published in the Gazette and Republican.

The map shows that Greene county boasts of 3491 automobiles, which is unusually large for a county of this size. The statistics show that for the whole state, there are 540,294 motor vehicles, of which passengers and commercial cars compose 511,300; motorcycles 20,444; electrics 4,925, and dealers 3,625.

Fayette county has but 2585 autos as compared with the 3,491 in Greene county, while Clinton has 2,723, Warren 2,878 Madison 2,441, Champaign 2,878 and others in comparison.

If the number of automobiles is a criterion of the wealth of the county, this county stands well as a prosperous locality.

The field of 3,491 automobiles in this county, is a fertile one for the organization of an automobile association to be affiliated with the state and national association

The proposition of such an organization has been much discussed and details of the formation of such a body is now being investigated.

ONE RESULT O FWINTER

Life indoors with lack of exercise and heavy food is apt to throw tshe digestive organs out of order. Foley Cathartic Tablets are a wholesome physic that thoroughly cleanse the bowels without griping or nausea. They sweeten the stomach; invigorate the liver; banish headaches, biliousness, bloating, gas. Sayre & Hemphill.

IN BED TWO YEARS AS RESULT OF PNEUMONIA

Cough left and she soon got back strength and flesh.

"I was confined to my bed for 2 years from the effects of plural pneumonia. It left me with an awful cough and bronchial trouble. Was treated by 12 different doctors with no apparent benefit.

"I had heard of Milks Emulsion but had no faith in anything. A friend urged me, and I tried it. From the first, I commenced to feel better. I have now taken seven bottles and am feeling fine. Have no cough or bronchial trouble, have regained my flesh and strength and am doing all the work for a family of seven. I never felt better in my life." —Mrs. Dell Sivers, 46 Fulton St., Phoenix, N. Y.

A run-down body invites disease. Let Milks Emulsion build you up as it has others. It costs nothing to try.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.

...BREAK WITH OPTOSING FIVES TAKEN BY LOCALS

The Central High basketball squad scored a win and a defeat at the rink, Wednesday night, the first team losing out to Beavercreek 21 to 20, while the second string men won from Beaver Seconds 18 to 11.

The locals secured the lead at the start of the game when Bales scored a pretty ringer but they were unable to stay in the front and were trailing on the short end of a 9 to 6 score at the end of the half.

In the second half the wearers of the blue and white came back strong and outplayed and outscored their opponents but they fell one point short of overcoming the lead established in the initial period.

Hudson played a strong game for the locals dropping in five baskets in the last half and playing well on the floor. Bales located the hoops for a couple of ringers and added four points to his total on fouls. Riddell played consistently at guard.

H. Brill was the shining light for the Beaver outfit, scoring seven baskets, while L. Brill also played a good game.

DISCOVERIES

A Discarded old high-chair may have the top sawed off, thus making a kitchen stool of, just the right height.

When Frying Doughnuts or cruellers turn them over the instant they float to the top of the fat. The old way was to allow them to brown before turning; but by turning them over once, a coating is formed which prevents the fat from soaking into the dough. They are turned again so that they may brown on both sides. Then drain on paper.

DO IT NOW.

A worthy slogan and one that all should adopt, for it is human nature to "Put it Off." Do you realize that now is the time to select the monument or marker which you wish to see upon your lot when the beautiful days of spring and summer arrive? So many folks wait until only a few weeks before memorial day and then expect the work erected promptly, when it could have been made so easy by "doing it now." OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR STIFFNESS AWAY

Rub pain from back with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

INVITATIONS

CHAPTER 62

"Please come to my poverty party. It will be held in the kitchen on October 19—The Poor Weeds."

"Just look at this, Gerry!" Robert said, laughing heartily as he handed me the note written on a piece of brown paper bag such as is used to deliver groceries in.

"Isn't that lovely!" I exclaimed with enthusiasm. I said nothing to Robert of my conversation with Frank Weed, so he was really surprised.

"But what kind of a party is a poverty party?" he inquire. "It seems to me we have that sort nearly all the time."

"Nonsense! This is a real party, not a thing to grouch about. I don't know much about it, only I believe the guests wear their oldest clothes, (etc). I wonder who they are going to have besides us."

"Oh, probably the Murphy's."

"Them of course! I was wondering if they would ask Mary. I wish they would she makes things so lively."

The 19th of October fell upon Saturday that year, and I knew that was the reason Betty had chosen that date. We were all working people, and she knew that we could stay later Saturday night.

I called her up and told her we were delighted with the quaint invitations and would surely be on hand.

"Who else have you invited?" I asked.

"The Murphy's, Marion Hovey, and Jack Alder, Mary Ryan, and you and Robert. I wish I knew some nice chap to ask so Mary wouldn't be the odd girl. Can't you help me out?"

"Why yes, I think I can. The thought that Gardner Kenyon would be available flashed over me. "I have spoken to you of Mr. Kenyon, the young man I met in the mountains. I think he would come."

"Give me his address and he shall have a bid. What will he think tho?"

"Oh, he'll fit in all right!" I knew he would. It was one of his charms that no matter where he was or who was about, he was always self-possessed and easy—that is, he always had been whenever I had seen him.

I gave her Gardner's address. Without quite realizing it the party took on an added interest for me; I was more anxious to go. Not that I was at all in love with Gardner, but I liked him immensely. Then, too, he took me out of myself, made me forget that Robert was grumpy, and—I did not know this until later; did not realize it, I mean—he made me forget I was a business woman. Someway when I was with him I never thought of the shop. With Robert I found it a never failing subject of conversation, not dreaming that I was boring him to death with my talk of hats, and at the same time continually emphasizing my earning capacity, and so making him uncomfortable.

I heve heard, and I guess it is true, that women cannot dismiss their business as a man can. They talk about it at any and all times. They are too new in the business world to forget it when they are at home, or with others. It is of such vital interest to them, is so like a new toy, that they hate to lay it aside even for the sake of sociability. It is a mistake—one I learned, but only when it was too late.

Betty called me up at the shop and told me:

"Mr Kenyon wrote me the nicest note and said he would be delighted to come. I felt as if I knew him after reading it. I was afraid I should be a little embarrassed with my poverty party, but I shan't. I told him to wear the oldest things he had, and he promised."

That night I told Robert who was going, and watched him closely when I mentioned Marion Hovey's name. He did not change expression, simply remarking that we ought to have a good time. I spent the rest of the evening getting out the things we were to wear—the party was the next evening. I found an old dress in my trunk that I had saved because the color was particularly becoming, altho the dress I had considered past wearing. Then I discovered an old grap suit that Robert had discarded, and in some way neglected to give away. With old shoes, (etc.) we would do very well.

"It won't be any trouble for me to go to a poverty party," Mary said when we talked it over at luncheon on Saturday. "But if it had been a fancy dress ball little Mary Ryan would have sent her regrets."

Tomorrow—The Poverty Party.

DON'T NEGLECT THE LITTLE ONES

Mrs. J. S. Pitson, 376 E. 156th St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I can't speak too highly of Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has a cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while." Children like it. It contains no opiates. It is healing, soothing, prompt in action. Sayre & Hemphill.

NEGLECTED COUGHS BRING REGRET

No one can afford to neglect a cough or cold. Neglect often causes serious results. The best time to doctor is when the first indications of a cough or cold appears. Coughing weakens the delicate membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This makes a fertile field for the development of germs. The cold, grip, tonsilitis or influenza germ should be killed before they have time to get imbeded into this delicate membrane. For 50 cents you can get three ounces of Glando Pine. Mix this with enough syrup or honey to make a pint and you have a safe, sure and reliable remedy to use. It takes hold of a cough in a hurry. The first dose opens the air cells and makes you breathe deep and easy. It strengthens the membranes and destroys the cold, grip or tonsilitis germs before they begin to develop. Glando Pine is easily prepared. Directions, accompany each bottle. It tastes well and can be given to young children.

Don't be careless, but begin today to safeguard yourself against epidemics of coughs, colds, grip or influenza. Once you have used Glando Pine you will understand why people who have used it, always keep it in their homes. A dependable remedy at hand means a great deal to any family. Remember the name Glando Pine. You can get it of your druggist or it will be sent you by The Glando-Aid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HOUSTONIA AIDS NATURE'S OILING OF ACHEY JOINTS

When joints twinge and throb and pain it's sure that nature has been unable to keep the body in proper trim. Then the thing to do is give nature a help and yourself relief with a gentle massage of Houstonia. This soothing liniment penetrates to the very cause of the trouble and quickly ends your pain.

Your home should never be without Houstonia, the wonderful remedy that is more than an ordinary liniment. Houstonia relieves not by counter irritation but by penetration to the source of pain in a way that makes relief permanent. It also contains special antiseptic ingredients of unusually healing qualities found in no other liniment, and is the safest remedy you can use on cuts, bruises, burns, scalds and all sore spots. AN EBBAK WITH OTTOSING FIVES TAKEN BY LOCALS

The Central High basketball squad scored a win and a defeat at the rink, Wednesday night, the first team losing out to Beavercreek 21 to 20, while the second string men won from Beaver seconds 18 to 11.

The locals secured the lead at the start of the game when Bales scored a pretty ringer but they were unable to stay in the front and were trailing on the short end of a 9 to 6 score at the end of the half.

In the second half the wearers of the blue and white came back strong and outplayed and outscored their opponents but they fell one point short of overcoming the lead established in the initial period.

Hudson played a strong game for the locals dropping in five baskets in the last half and playing well on the floor. Bales located the hoops for a couple of ringers and added four points to his total on fouls. Riddell played consistently at guard.

H. Brill was the shining light for the Beaver outfit, scoring seven baskets, while L. Brill also played a good game.

DISCOVERIES

A Discarded old high-chair may have the top sawed off, thus making a kitchen stool of just the right height.

When Frying Doughnuts or cruellers turn them over the instant they float to the top of the fat. The old way was to allow them to brown before turning; but by turning them over once, a coating is formed which prevents the fat from soaking into the dough. They are turned again so that they may brown on both sides. Then drain on paper.

INVITATIONS

CHAPTER 62

"Please come to my poverty party. It will be held in the kitchen on October 19—The Poor Weeds."

"Just look at this, Gerry!" Robert said, laughing heartily as he handed me the note written on a piece of brown paper bag such as is used to deliver groceries in.

"Isn't that lovely!" I exclaimed with enthusiasm. I said nothing to Robert of my conversation with Frank Weed, so he was really surprised.

"But what kind of a party is a poverty party?" he inquire. "It seems to me we have that sort nearly all the time."

"Nonsense! This is a real party, not a thing to grouch about. I don't know much about it, only I believe the guests wear their oldest clothes, (etc.) I wonder who they are going to have besides us."

"Oh, probably the Murphy's."

"Them of course! I was wondering if they would ask Mary. I wish they would she makes things so lively."

The 19th of October fell upon Saturday that year, and I knew that was the reason Betty had chosen that date. We were all working people, and she knew that we could stay later Saturday night.

I called her up and told her we were delighted with the quaint invitations and would surely be on hand.

"Who else have you invited?" I asked.

"The Murphy's, Marion Hovey, and Jack Alder, Mary Ryan, and you and Robert. I wish I knew some nice chap to ask so Mary wouldn't be the odd girl. Can't you help me out?"

"Why yes, I think I can. The thought that Gardner Kenyon would be available flashed over me, "I have spoken to you of Mr. Kenyon, the young man I met in the mountains. I think he would come."

"Give me his address and he shall have a bid. What will he think tho?"

"Oh, he'll fit in all right!" I knew he would. It was one of his charms that no matter where he was or who was about, he was always self-possessed and easy—that is, he always had been whenever I had seen him.

I gave her Gardner's address. Without quite realizing it the party took on an added interest for me; I was more anxious to go. Not that I was at all in love with Gardner, but I liked him immensely. Then, too, he took me out of myself, made me forget that Robert was grumpy, and—I did not know this until later; did not realize it, I mean—he made me forget I was a business woman. Someway when I was with him I never thought of the shop. With Robert I found it a never failing subject of conversation, not dreaming that I was boring him to death with my talk of hats, and at the same time continually emphasizing my earning capacity, and so making him uncomfortable.

I heve heard, and I guess it is true, that women cannot dismiss their business as a man can. They talk about it at any and all times. They are too new in the business world to forget it when they are at home, or with others. It is of such vital interest to them, is so like a new toy, that they hate to lay it aside even for the sake of socialibility. It is a mistake—one I learned, but only when it was too late.

Betty called me up at the shop and told me:

"Mr Kenyon wrote me the nicest note and said he would be delighted to come. I felt as if I knew him after reading it. I was afraid I should be a little embarrassed with my poverty party, but I shan't. I told him to wear the oldest things he had, and he promised."

That night I told Robert who was going, and watched him closely when I mentioned Marion Hovey's name. He did not change expression, simply remarking that we ought to have a good time. I spent the rest of the evening getting out the things we were to wear—the party was the next evening. I found an old dress in my trunk that I had saved because the color was particularly becoming, altho the dress I had considered past wearing. Then I discovered an old grap suit that Robert had discarded, and in some way neglected to give away. With old shoes, (etc.) we would do very well.

"It won't be any trouble for me to go to a poverty party." Mary said when we talked it over at luncheon on Saturday. "But if it had been a fancy dress ball little Mary Ryan would have sent her regrets."

Tomorrow—The Poverty Party.

DO IT NOW.

A worthy slogan and one that all should adopt, for it is human nature to "Put it Off." Do you realize that now is the time to select the monument or marker which you wish to see upon your lot when the beautiful days of spring and summer arrive? So many folks wait until only a few weeks before memorial day and then expect the work erected promptly, when it could have been made so easy by "doing it now." The George Dodds & Sons Granite Co., 113-129 W. Main St.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR STIFFNESS AWAY

Rub pain from back with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints!

That's Right, Say "I Want CELERY KING"

Take a cup to regulate your bowels to purify your blood and make you strong so you can withstand an attack of grippe if it happens to come along this winter. It's one great vegetable laxative and it won't cost you but a few cents to find it out. Children like it.

DON'T NEGLECT THE LITTLE ONES

Mrs. J. S. Pitson, 376 E. 156th St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I can't speak too highly of Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has a cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while." Children like it. It contains no opiates. It is healing, soothing, prompt in action. Sayre & Hemphill.

NEGLECTED COUGHS BRING REGRET

No one can afford to neglect a cough or cold. Neglect often causes serious results. The best time to doctor is when the first indications of a cough or cold appears. Coughing weakens the delicate membrane of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. This makes a fertile field for the development of germs. The cold, grip, tonsilitis or influenza germ should be killed before they have time to get imbeded into this delicate membrane. For 50 cents you can get three ounces of Glando Pine. Mix this with enough syrup or honey to make a pint and you have a safe, sure and reliable remedy to use. It takes hold of a cough in a hurry. The first dose opens the air cells and makes you breathe deep and easy. It strengthens the membranes and destroys the cold, grip or tonsilitis germs before they begin to develop. Glando Pine is easily prepared. Directions, accompany each bottle. It tastes well and can be given to young children.

Don't be careless, but begin today to safeguard yourself against epidemics of coughs, colds, grip or influenza. Once you have used Glando Pine you will understand why people who have used it, always keep it in their homes. A dependable remedy at hand means a great deal to any family. Remember the name Glando Pine. You can get it of your druggist or it will be sent you by The Glando-Aid Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HOUSTONIA AIDS NATURE'S OILING OF ACHEY JOINTS

When joints twinge and throb and pain it's sure that nature has been unable to keep the body in proper trim. Then the thing to do is give nature a help and yourself relief with a gentle massage of Houstonia. This soothing liniment penetrates to the very cause of the trouble and quickly ends your pain.

Your home should never be without Houstonia, the wonderful remedy that is more than an ordinary liniment. GREENE COUNTY HAS ABUNDANCE OF AUTOMOBILES

Of 53 counties larger than Greene county, in this state, only 42 of them have more motor vehicles than this county.

This fact is proven by the map showing the number of automobiles in each county, recently sent out from the office of Secretary of State, Harvey G. Smith, and published in the Gazette and Republican.

The map shows that Greene county boasts of 3491 automobiles, which is unusually large for a county of this size. The statistics show that for the whole state, there are 540,294 motor vehicles, of which passengers and commercial cars compose 511,300; motorcycles 20,444; electrics 4,925, and dealers 3,625.

Fayette county has but 2585 autos as compared with the 3,491 in Greene county, while Clinton has 2,723, Warren 2,878 Madison 2,441, Champaign 2,878 and others in comparison.

If the number of automobiles is a criterion of the wealth of the county, this county stands well as a prosperous locality.

The field of 3,491 automobiles in this county, is a fertile one for the organization of an automobile association to be affiliated with the state and national association

The proposition of such an organization has been much discussed and details of the formation of such a body is now being investigated.

ONE RESULT O FWINTER

Life indoors with lack of exercise and heavy food is apt to throw tshe digestive organs out of order. Foley Cathartic Tablets are a wholesome physic that thoroughly cleanse the bowels without griping or nausea. They sweeten the stomach; invigorate the liver; banish headaches, biliousness, bloating, gas. Sayre & Hemphill.

IN BED TWO YEARS AS RESULT OF PNEUMONIA

Cough left and she soon got back strength and flesh.

"I was confined to my bed for 2 years from the effects of plural pneumonia. It left me with an awful cough and bronchial trouble. Was treated by 12 different doctors with no apparent benefit.

"I had heard of Milks Emulsion but had no faith in anything. A friend urged me, and I tried it. From the first, I commenced to feel better. I have now taken seven bottles and am feeling fine. Have no cough or bronchial trouble, have regained my flesh and strength and am doing all the work for a family of seven. I never felt better in my life." —Mrs. Dell Sivers, 46 Fulton St., Phoenix, N. Y.

A run-down body invites disease. Let Milks Emulsion build you up as it has others. It costs nothing to try.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.
